ILLUSTRATIONS FOR PUBLIC SPEAKERS, CYCLOPEDIA OF

Edited by Robert Scott and W. C. Stiles. The illustrations are entirely new; every one is fresh and drawn from an original source, from nature, from common life, from recent events, from science, from biography, from religious experience, from anecdotes, etc. The matter is arranged alphabetically under topical headings, with a thorough system of cross references. For the convenience of preachers, textual indexes are given, arranged in Biblical order and also in the alphabetical order of the topics. Large 8vo, 844 pp., Cloth, $5.00.

"A large, important, and useful work that will help enhance the utterances of men who speak in public; also after-dinner speakers, who desire to be at all times well equipped to arouse enthusiasm."—Boston Globe.

"The selections are admirable, and the books will prove useful to every one who has occasion to occupy the platform."—Chauncey M. Depew, LL.D.

"There is good evidence all through that the editors were able to discriminate between a real illustration and mere quotation or citation. All the entries in this volume are distinctly suited for public speakers' use."—Salt Lake Tribune, Salt Lake, Utah.

Child Training as an Exact Science. A treatise based upon the principles of modern psychology. Covers a field no other work does. 12mo, Cloth, 384 pp.; with 15 full-page illustrations. $1.50.

The Unsound Mind and the Law. A Presentation of Forensic Psychiatry. By an expert along this line of discussion. Discusses at length the various types of mental abnormality and the degrees of responsibility that may be assigned to persons classified under the different categories. The book opens with a careful examination of the general relation between jurisprudence and the treatment and restraint of those suffering from mental disorders, goes on to describe in detail the various methods of diagnosis and discrimination between different types, and, after considering hypnosis and sexual anomalies, closes with advice as to the manner in which opinions should be rendered. To those who are interested in the medico-legal aspects of crime and the degrees of moral responsibility that we are justified in assuming in various grades of mental deficiency this book will prove a most valuable assistance and authority. 8vo, Cloth, 438 pp. $3.00.

JENKS, PROF. J. W., PH.D., LL.D., and LAUCK, PROF. W. JETT

The Immigration Problem. A Study of American Immigration—Conditions and Needs. (Thoroughly revised and enlarged by Rufus D. Smith, M.A., Associate Professor of Public Economy, New York University.) Dr. Jenks, now Research Professor of Government and Public Administration in New York University, was an active member of the United States Immigration Commission, appointed in 1907, and Prof. Lauck, now Director of the Bureau of Applied Economics, at Washington, was officially connected therewith during the Commission's four years of searching work. Based upon the extended Report of that Commission, in forty-two volumes, this book's Fifth Edition has been revised, enlarged, and brought down to date by Prof. Rufus D. Smith, for this Sixth Edition. All available new data has been added to the text. The appendices now contain all Immigration Laws and Regulations from those of 1917 to the Immigration Act of 1924, together with all of the latest statistics. The three chapters written by Prof. Smith are of great importance—Immigration Problems of Other Countries, The Race Problem in the Pacific, and Present and Future Restriction. This Sixth Edition is thus made the standard compact authority on Immigration, in accordance with latest official figures and facts, holding place absolutely abreast with conditions affecting our nation's present and future. Cloth, 8vo. 744 pages. $4.00.

"This book will continue to hold its position as the authoritative digest of the reports of the Immigration Commission, and as such will serve a widely useful purpose."—The Evening Post, New York.

"The book is the most exhaustive study of the immigration problem in compact form that we have."—The Transcript, Boston, Mass.

"A non-partizan, clear-cut, authoritative presentation of a problem of pressing importance and of vital interest to all classes of citizens of the United States."—Tribune, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Fifteen Thousand Useful Phrases. Collected and classified, in a practical handbook of pertinent expressions, striking similes, etc., to improve the vocabularies of all who read, write, and speak English. 12mo, Cloth, 453 pp., $1.60.

Great Speeches and How to Make Them. Mr. Kleiser, in this work, aims to set forth, not only the sources of the power exercised by famous masters of oratory, but to point out methods by which young men may acquire and develop the art. His long experience as a teacher, and his own gifts as a speaker, not to mention his exhaustive studies of the lives and speeches of great authors, have fitted him for the preparation of a work that should make strong appeal. 12mo, Cloth. $1.60.

How to Argue and Win. The author gives different suggestions for training the mind to accuracy of thought and in the power of clear and effective statements. His method is thoroughly practical, being, in fact, the result of his experience in teaching men how to "think on their feet." 12mo, Cloth. 310 pp. $1.60.

How to Build Mental Power. Forceful and inspiring. Shows how we can meet and overcome life's most difficult problems by cultivating the right mental attitude and setting forth a constructive philosophy of optimism. 8vo, Cloth. $4.00.

Gives suggestions for developing Power and Personality in Speaking, Physical Power, Power of Voice, How to Build a Vocabulary, Power of English Style, How to Develop the Imagination, Dramatic Power, How to Train the Memory, Power in Silence and Repose, Power in Prayer, etc. 12mo, Cloth, 443 pp. $1.60.

How to Develop Self-Confidence in Speech and Manner. By means of a prescribed plan the author believes students "may systematically develop a high type of manly self-confidence." He sets forth a series of suggestions for thirty-one days to be followed in the cultivation of qualities that make for power. 12mo, Cloth. $1.60.

How to Read and Declaim. Mr. Kleiser aims, in this work, to present a course of instruction in reading and declamation, with his prime object the cultivation of taste and refinement. The book presents two courses of study—first, preparatory; second, advanced. Then are given selections for use in practice, chosen from standard authors and comprising both poetry and prose. 12mo, Cloth. $1.60.

How to Speak in Public. A complete elocutionary manual for students, teachers, business men, lawyers, clergymen, politicians, clubs, debating societies, etc. Included with this book is a complete course of study by which one can acquire the art of public speaking without a master. 12mo, Cloth, 543 pp. $1.60.

Humorous Hits and How to Hold an Audience. A collection of the newest and best selections, stories, and sketches of the foremost authors, entertainers, and humorists, prefaced by instructions on proper delivery and how to hold an audience. Includes 59 pages of "serious hits." 12mo, Cloth, 347 pp. $1.25.

Inspiration and Ideals. A brief sentiment, or saying, for every day in the year, not quoted from any other author but emphasizing some thought of Mr. Kleiser for the day's help and the discharge of its duty. 12mo, Cloth. 383 pp. $1.25.

Similies and Their Use. An indispensable collection of more than 4,500 of the most apt phrases,-principally the creation of the keenest minds in the world, but including hundreds which though not of distinctive authorship are fully as descriptive and as virile, many of which have never before been collected into book form. The volume is divided into four sections: 1. Prose similes. 2. Poetic similes. 3. Bible similes. 4. Miscellaneous similes. 12mo, Cloth, 386 pp. $2.00.

LAUCK, W. JETT and EDGAR SYDENSTRICKER

Conditions of Labor in American Industries. An authoritative study of the results of Federal and State investigations as to the conditions of wage-earners in the principal industries of the United States. Mr. Lauck was formerly associate professor of economics in the Washington and Lee University, and co-author with Jeremiah W. Jenks of "The Immigration Problem." Mr. Sydenstricker has done work along similar lines as expert investigator for the Federal Immigration Commission and the Commission on Industrial Relations. The two authors write of the wages and other earnings of workers in the principal industries of this country, conditions as to working hours, sanitary matters, irregularity of employment, adequacy of wages as indicated by recent standards, etc. Crown 8vo, 416 pp. $1.75.

LAUCK, PROF. W. JETT, and WATTS, CLAUDE S.

The Industrial Code. W. Jett Lauck was Secretary of the National War Labor Board, and associated with him as joint author is Claude S. Watts, who was Chief of the Division of Investigation of the same board. This was the board organized to bring about a settlement, by mediation and conciliation, of all controversies arising during the war between employers and employees in all industries pertaining to the conduct of the war.

The authors give us a history of industrial development during the war and since the armistice was declared, a presentation, in an unbiased and non-partisan way, of the problems in the present relations of labor and capital, the principles that apply, and the enlightened opinion of different social and economic groups. The book is written with due regard for the claims of both sides and is a constructive one, taking up such questions as "collective bargaining," the Kansas Industrial Court, the Esch-Townsend Railroad Act, the "right of labor to a living wage," the "right of labor to a voice in the control of industry," "the work of women," etc., and furnishes a code of principles for the future working relations between labor and capital. It is a book that will strongly appeal to men on both sides, to all economic students, and to libraries. 8vo, Cloth, 579 pp. $4.00.

MENTAL EFFICIENCY SERIES

Ten Volumes of uniform 16mo size, made up in the most careful manner from the writings of Aristotle, Socrates, Darwin, Spencer, William James, Muensterberg, Jastrow, Schofield, and other accepted authorities on mental science practically applied. But though in a broad way these men are the authors of these books, those who have done the actual work of collecting the material and putting it into this unusual form are a group of scientists and practical men prominent in this sort of work, not only in this country but abroad, where the study of mental efficiency has really reached a much higher plane. The great service they have performed has been to point out the practical day-by-day application of all this knowledge. The topics treated in these ten volumes are:

Poise: How to Attain It. Starke, D.

Force of Character: How to Develop It. Starke, D.

Timidity: How to Overcome It. Yoritomo-Tashi.

Influence: How to Exert It. Yoritomo-Tashi.

Common Sense: How to Exercise It. Yoritomo-Tashi.

Practicality: How to Acquire It. Nicolle, R.

Opportunities: How to Make the Most of Them. Charley, L.

Perseverance: How to Develop It. Besser, H.

Speech: How to Use it Effectively in All Phases of Daily Life. Xanthes.

Personality: How to Produce It. Laurent, H.

Bound in Cloth. Price, $10.00 the set; $1.00 a volume. In half leather, or "Luxart." Price, $15.00 the set; $1.50 a volume. Sold separately.

MERTON, HOLMES W.

How to Choose the Right Vocation. Designed to help boys and young men in making their vocational decisions. In this book Mr. Merton records the results of his unrivaled practical acquaintance with the subject, and his simple, direct, and sympathetic treatment of this most important question can not fail to be of great help to all young men and women who are striving to "find themselves" vocationally. To employers, teachers, students of business problems, and all who are interested in this comparatively new field of human effort, it will also appeal strongly. 12mo, Cloth, 322 pp. $1.50.

MODERN SERMONS BY WORLD SCHOLARS

Ten volumes of over seventy sermons, Edited by Robert Scott and W. C. Stiles, with introduction by Newell Dwight Hillis, D.D. Each sermon, given entire, was selected (oftentimes by the preacher himself) as most representative of the authors' style and force. In every instance, where the author was living, an approval of the selection was sought and obtained, so that the ten volumes are fairly representative of the modern pulpit as characterized by these world scholars. The topics embraced are of timely interest and furnish excellent reading for the layman, as well as for the clergyman. The following are a few of the many scholars whose best pulpit efforts are included in the ten volumes:

Lyman Abbott, Walter F. Adeny, Willis J. Beecher, Llewelyn D. Bevan, Hugh Black, Borden P. Bowne, James Denny, Canon S. R. Driver, James Drummond, A. M. Fairbairn, W. H. P. Faunce, George A. Gates, David Gregg, George Hodges, Franklin Johnson, Henry Churchill King, George Trumbull Ladd, James G. K. McClure, A. C. McGiffort, Edouard Montet, A. T. Pierson, James Orr, M. B. Riddle, James Stalker, George E. Reed, Milton S. Terry, Josiah Strong, Henry Van Dyke, G. Frederick Wright, and many others.

Daintily and substantially bound, small 12mo size. In a Box. Bound in cloth or half leather. Sold only by Subscription.

MOORE, DOROTHEA

†An Adventurous School Girl. This story of a schoolgirl of the days of the Jacobites opens with the news of the coming of the rebels, and the flight of everybody—except Lettice Fairfax and a maid, who are kept fast there by the illness of Lettice, with the result that she finds herself unwillingly embroiled in high affairs which carry her to London—and to Newgate itself. It is a good story in which every girl will revel. 12mo, Cloth, 286 pp., with several full-page illustrations in black and white and frontispiece in colors. $1.50.

NATIONAL HEALTH SERIES—Cont'd.

*The National Health Council is composed of the following representative organizations: American Child Health Association, American Heart Association, American Public Health Association, American Red Cross, American Social Hygiene Association, American Society for the Control of Cancer, Conference of State and Provincial Health Authorities of North America, National Committee for Mental Hygiene, National Organization for Public Health Nursing, National Tuberculosis Association, United States Children's Bureau, United States Public Health Service, American Association of Industrial Physicians and Surgeons, National Committee for the Prevention of Blindness, Women's Foundation for Health.

"It is astonishing to think that this large series of twenty health books edited by the National Health Council, composed of leading representatives of the health associations in the United States, in such an excellently readable form can be retailed at $6.00 for the entire series. Personally, we know of no better way of investing $6.00 than in the National Health Series—the sooner the better. The information obtained through the little volumes at that price is well worth six hundred times six dollars, and only general apathy and mental deficiency can prevent anybody from missing this wonderful opportunity given us by the National Health Council."—Medical Recorder, Chicago, Ill.

For Charlie's Sake, and Other Lyrics and Ballads. Sixteen poems embracing lyrics of pathos and sentiment and ballads of war. 12mo, Cloth, deckle edges, gilt top, 95 pp., ornamental cover. $1.00.

PARKER, JOSEPH, D.D.

†The People's Bible. This twenty-eight volume library, by one of the greatest preachers and theologians the world has ever known, is both guide and interpreter to the treasures of the entire Bible. It throws a clear light on the beauty and significance that are so frequently hidden behind the ambiguities of the text. It is so arranged as to meet the wants of the ordinary Bible reader as well as the requirements of students and ministers. In the ordinary sense it is not a Bible Commentary. Its scope is broader and less technical. It is essentially a guide to Biblical wisdom. As a distinctly pastoral exhibition it furnishes a careful and thorough analysis and application of the spiritual meaning of the scriptures. It is a work as valuable for the home circle as for the library or study. Exhaustive special indexes in each volume and a complete Index volume make the contents easily accessible. Each volume complete in itself. In 28 vols. 8vo, Cloth. $1.75 per vol.

†The Pulpit Bible. The entire text of the Bible is printed in large, clear type, with bright and suggestive illustrations in an ample margin opposite each significant verse. The author's notes alone run to over 750,000 words. The notes are all original and they indicate the special pulpit use of each verse (where available) in the Bible. Each note is thus a suggestion for a sermon. Where space has not permitted a sufficient treatment of any passage, a copious and most carefully detailed index indicates in which of Dr. Parker's other books the particular interpretation is provided. 4to, Full Morocco, 1,351 pp., one vol. $20.00.

†Studies in Texts. Six volumes containing new sermons, outlines, suggestions, etc., designed to be of value to preachers, Bible students, teachers, and other active religious workers, and useful for home and family readings. 6 vols., 12mo, Cloth. $1.75 per vol.

PARTRIDGE, WILLIAM ORDWAY

The Czar's Gift. This is an addition to the "Hour-Glass Series" by the well-known Sculptor who will be remembered as the author of "The Angel of Clay," "Nathan Hale," etc. Cloth. 40 cents.

PATTERSON, CHARLES BRODIE

Dominion and Power; or the Science of Life and Living (Seventh, New Edition). One of Mr. Patterson's most popular books, thoroughly revised; contains chapters dealing with Mental and Physical Health, Psychic Development, The Right Use of the Breath, Self Control, etc. 12mo, Cloth, 297 pp. $1.75.

Living Waters; or, Rivers to the Ocean. Seeks to show that there are simple and direct ways for attaining every desire, end, or purpose in life; that it is easier to do right than to do wrong. 12mo, Cloth, 356 pp. $1.75.

The Measure of a Man. The desire uppermost in the mind of the author is to carry a word of hope to those who feel their need of greater life and light. 8vo, Cloth, 297 pp. $1.75.

The Will to be Well. The author's latest thought on the ill-important subject of mental and physical health. 8vo, Cloth. 297 pp. $1.75.

In the Sunlight of Health. Characteristic common-sense, inspiring philosophy, and wise comment. Cloth, 12mo. $1.75.

PAYOT, JULES, Litt.D., Ph.D.

The Education of the Will. Has passed through thirty editions since it first came out in French. Translated by Smith Ely Jelliffe, M.D. Prof. Payot ably discusses the possibilities which lie in a judicious training of the will, he covers the relations to intellectual labor of athletic exercise, bodily hygiene, eating, drinking, etc. 12mo, Cloth, 448 pp. $1.75.

Will-Power and Work. Authorized translation by Richard Duffy. This sequel to "The Education of the Will" contains a series of talks on The Theory and Practise of Self-Culture, mental efficiency, and power of accomplishment. 12mo, Cloth, 462 pp. $1.75.

The Conquest of Happiness. Another important work from the gifted pen of the author of "The Education of the Will," and "Will Power and Work," translated from the French by Richard Duffy. It is an ideal guide for all who seek to attain true happiness. Encouraging, informative, and inspiring, based on scientific facts, yet written in a delightful style which all may readily understand. 12mo, Cloth, 421 pp. $1.75.

PETITMANGIN, PROF. H., and FITZGERALD, JOHN A., A.B. (With the collaboration of Ernest Dimnet, author of "French Grammar Made Clear," etc.)

Latin Grammar Made Clear. An outstanding grammar for school work—one that is complete enough without being crowded, one that gives an unmistakable impression of clarity by its logical arrangement, and one that is genuinely interesting. Professor Petitmangin is an exceptional scholar and his knowledge of the minutiæ of the Latin language will at once be evident to experts. It is fortunate that he could secure the collaboration of both John A. Fitzgerald and Ernest Dimnet, for with their aid the English version seems assured of the same high position in America that the French original has enjoyed in France and elsewhere for fifteen years. The exercises will be found to be of valuable service in helping and practically compelling the student to think, not memorize, and to acquire familiarity with the spirit of the Latin language by vital imitation. 12mo, Cloth, 333 pp. $1.50.

"The book seems to justify the title. Not only is it clear, but it is practical above all things. The pupil is made to handle complete sentences from the outset, and is thus led to take more interest in the study. The aim that is kept in view throughout is to enable the student not only to read the Latin authors with ease, but also to write and speak Latin easily and fluently. The Foreword and the Practical Questions and Answers which follow contain valuable hints which, if adopted, will greatly aid in attaining this result. There is a good index, besides a copious Latin-English and English-Latin vocabulary, and there is also an abundance of exercises for translation from Latin into English, as well as from English into Latin. We recommend the grammar, and consider it superior for practical purposes to the grammars commonly in use in our schools and academies."—The Messenger of the Sacred Heart.

POE, EDGAR ALLAN

The Cameo Edition of Poe's Complete Works. A dainty and handy edition, including all of Poe's prose and poetical works, with numerous explanatory notes and a striking frontispiece with each volume. "Poe's works will always remain," says Hamilton W. Mabie, of The Outlook, "one of our most precious literary possessions." European critics regard him as the greatest of American writers. About one-thirtieth of his work consists of his poetical writings; by far the major part is vivid, intense, highly imaginative romance. Ten volumes. 6⅜ x 4 inches. Tastefully bound in Cloth and in dainty Half Leather. Sold only by subscription.

POLLOCK, HORATIO M., and MORGAN, WILLIAM S.

The Ethics of Marriage. Frank and earnest discussions of the present abuses of marriage and parenthood, with helpful advice and suggestions for the integrity, purity and happiness of married life, with a prefatory note by Thomas A. Emmet, M.E., LL.D., and an introduction by Rev. J. T. Duryea, D.D. With an appendix showing the laws of most of the states concerning certain forms of crime. 12mo, Cloth, 192 pp. $1.25.

POST, EMILY

Etiquette: In Society, In Business, In Politics, and at Home. ("The Blue Book of Social Usage.") The author's position in American society, her achievements as a novelist and essayist, and her wide acquaintance with social and diplomatic circles of the European capitals, enable her to write on the subject of etiquette with ease and accuracy. There are scores of books on etiquette which are the product of practised writers who have no inside knowledge of their subject or of writers not so facile who set down the most obvious ordinances of social intercourse in a manner dull, trivial, and not infrequently erroneous. Here we have authority, literary skill, and something that no book of etiquette now before the public contains, namely, the welding of the form and spirit of social life in so ingenious a fashion that we not only learn the rules of social intercourse in society, business, politics, and at home, but we actually live them out in the reading of the book. Crown 8vo. Cloth. Illustrated with 16 full page illustrations. $4.00. Full Leather, $7.50.

Parade. This is one of the most outstanding and revealing books of fiction published in recent years, not only because it deals with the aspirations and ambitions of every woman who has or craves the opportunity to get into society, and to climb after she gets in, but equally because of the charm and power and skill which the author displays in its composition. The volume deals with a young girl who would seem to be hopelessly handicapped socially because of her beginnings in life, but who rises and shines in that section of New York society which is all pomp and ostentation and which forms the background of this vivid story, so aptly entitled "Parade." 12mo, Cloth. $2.00.

PREACHER'S COMPLETE HOMILETIC COMMENTARY ON THE OLD AND THE NEW TESTAMENT, THE

With Critical and Exegetical Notes. This commentary, consisting of thirty-two royal octavo volumes (Old Testament 21 volumes, New Testament 11 volumes), and having over eighteen thousand pages, contains an exposition, wholly in English, on every paragraph or verse of the entire Bible that can be used to advantage in the preparation of sermons. With copious indexes to each volume and an index volume to the entire series. Among the contributors are: Rev. J. S. Exell, M.A.; Rev. W. Burrows, B.A.; Thomas Robinson, D.D.; Rev. J. W. Harris; Rev. D. G. Watt, M.A.; Rev. Geo. Barlow; Rev. Robert Tuck; Thomas Whitelaw, D.D.; Rev. Henry J. Foster, etc.

Preacher's Complete Homiletic Commentary on the Old Testament. By twenty distinguished homilists. 8vo, Cloth, over 12,000 pp., 20 vols. (and index volume), complete, $80.00; per vol., $4.00.

Preacher's Complete Homiletic Commentary on the New Testament. Uniform size and style with the Homiletic Commentary on the Old Testament. Cloth, 10 vols. (and index volume), 6,000 pp., $40.00; per vol., $4.00.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS

IT BRINGS TO THE PREACHER'S ATTENTION hundreds of texts heretofore almost wholly passed over by the pulpit. Spurgeon, in his Commenting and Commentaries, says: "We have next to nothing on Kings." In the Homiletic Commentary we have on Kings alone 743 treatments of texts. The same is true of other books, as Jeremiah. New expositions, critical notes, illustrations, etc., are poured in upon neglected texts, and additional light thrown upon old texts.

IT IS THE ONLY COMMENTARY that supplies a sermonic treatment of homiletic suggestion on every verse of both the Old and New Testaments that can be used to advantage as a sermon text.

IT CONCENTRATES THE LIGHT of all ages and of all countries on the text.

IT IS WHOLLY FREE FROM DENOMINATIONAL BIAS, being strictly evangelical.

IT SUGGESTS THOUSANDS OF THEMES AND ILLUSTRATIONS for sermons, also many hundreds of useful illustrations.

PREACHER'S COMPLETE HOMILETIC COMMENTARY—Continued

IT THROWS NEW LIGHT upon the present controversies over the Old Testament.

THE COMMENTARY IS WHOLLY IN ENGLISH, avoiding Hebrew and Greek, except here and there in the critical notes.

THE INDEXES are useful and practical.

RADZIWILL, PRINCESS CATHERINE

†Germany Under Three Emperors. German-Prussian anti-war revelations of court secrets when the German Empire began and under the reigns following. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 390 pp. $4.00.

†Cecil Rhodes: Man and Empire-Maker. The enormous extension which Rhodes made to the British Empire is common knowledge, but of the man himself little is really known. Into this framework of history is fitted the mosaic of his personal character, by one who during a considerable period had opportunities for studying him. Crown 8vo, Cloth. Illustrated with photogravures. $3.00.

RANKIN, JOHN C., D.D.

The Coming of the Lord. A series of essays. 12mo, Cloth, 83 pp. 75 cents.

RAYMOND, GEORGE LANSING, L.H.D.

Fundamentals in Education, Art and Civics. A series of essays on topics widely divergent in themselves, but pervaded always by the scholarship and liberality of mind which have been conspicuous in the many books on education, art, and life already written by him. 12mo, Cloth, 350 pages. $1.40.

Suggestions for the Spiritual Life. A volume in which Prof. Raymond discusses problems of vital importance to young men. 12mo, Cloth, 337 pages. $1.40.

RICHMAN, JACOB

Laughs from Jewish Lore. The only book of its kind in the English language—a representative collection of Jewish wit and humor. These folk-tales and anecdotes give the reader an insight into true Jewish character and habit of mind and though genuinely funny and witty, they are not to be confused with the familiar "Hebrew yarn" which is offensive and not Jewish, but merely about Jews. The introduction throws most interesting light on the subject of Jewish humor. 12mo, Cloth, 397 pp. $2.00.

RIDDLE, M. B., D.D.

Commentary on St. Mark and St. Luke. (See Meyer's Commentary.)

ROBB, JOHN F.

Patent Essentials for the Executive, Engineer, Lawyer, and Inventor. From this volume, written in easily understood language for the layman, business men, engineers, young patent solicitors, recruit patent examiners, inventors and mechanics, students of patent law, lawyers with but occasional patent cases, assistants in patent law-offices, and foreign patent agents or solicitors will gain a splendid knowledge of the essential facts regarding the protection of patents, how to secure them, what is patentable, and the procedure of the Patent Office. The author is a patent attorney of wide experience, who writes interestingly and authoritatively on his subject. Crown 8vo, Law Buckram, 452 pp. $5.00.

ROBERTS, KATE LOUISE

Hoyt's New Cyclopedia of Practical Quotations. (See under Hoyt, page 31.)

ROBERTSON, JOHN, M.D.

Housing and the Public Health. Deals with the urgent question of providing adequate housing facilities for rapidly increasing city populations, and covers in a very thorough manner the subjects of sanitation, convenience, and comfort arising in this connection. Crown 8vo, Cloth. Illustrated with diagrams. $1.50.

ROOSEVELT, THEODORE

The Conservation of Womanhood and Childhood. Prepared originally by Col. Roosevelt as an address before the Civic Forum and the Child's Welfare League of New York City. 16mo, Cloth. 75 cents.

ROPER, DANIEL C. Formerly First Assistant Postmaster-General of the United States.

The United States Post Office. A unique and intensely interesting study of the post-office system of this country by an expert. Of absorbing interest from a historical point of view; filled with the romance and color of the growth of civilization on this continent. A wonderful sociological document. 12mo, Cloth. Copiously illustrated. $1.50.

ROSE, ACHILLES, M.D. (See also Physician vs. Bacteriologist.)

Atonia Gastrica. The relation of some ailments to abdominal relaxation has only been recognized since the author's method of abdominal strapping has been adopted and extensively practised. Gives in attractive form all we know in regard to the subject. Many helpful illustrations. 12mo, Cloth. $1.00.

Carbonic Acid in Medicine. Sets forth facts about the healing qualities of carbonic acid gas, which were known centuries ago, and then strangely passed into disuse. 12mo, Cloth. $1.00.

ROSE, ROBERT F.

The Rose System of Stenography. A complete Course of Instruction in Shorthand. Cloth, $2.50.

ROSE, ROBERT HUGH, M.D.

Eat Your Way to Health. A Scientific System of Weight Control. (New Edition, thoroughly revised and greatly enlarged.) An ideal volume for laymen, nurses, dietitians, and physicians, interestingly written in easily understood non-technical language, showing clearly the vitaminic and caloric value of foods in their relation not only to weight control but to high blood pressure, teeth, and general health. The new material contains among other things three lists of menus of three tasty, inexpensive, and easy-to-prepare meals a day for two weeks in summer and two weeks in winter—(1) for Weight Reduction, (2) for Weight Maintenance, (3) for Weight Increase. A thoroughly safe, scientific, and sensible work by an authority—the result of 20 years' research and practice. 12mo, Cloth. $2.00, net.

ROSENTHAL, DR. RICHARD S.

The Rosenthal Linguistry System in French, German, Spanish, and Italian. This system has met with world-wide success because it is the natural method of learning a language. It commences by associating words with ideas. By this means the student wastes no time with unnecessary rules of grammar and syntax, but begins to use the language itself at once by saying things that mean something and will be of practical use to him. Every minute devoted to this system results in usable knowledge. The distinguishing feature of this method is the proper selection of a vocabulary that can be employed to advantage in every-day life. This common-sense system of learning foreign tongues in the easiest and most natural way is supplied in four languages, French, German, Italian and Spanish. 12mo. Price for any one language, $6.00.

"This is, without doubt, the simplest, quickest, and most practical method in existence."—The New York Times.

"The method is wonderfully simple and ingenious."—The Star, Washington, D. C.

"The Rosenthal Method makes study a pleasure and no task, enabling one to make practical use of everything learned."—The Herald, Boston.

The Language Phone Method

The one best means for learning a language successfully. The Rosenthal Linguistry volumes, in conjunction with a phonograph and the recently created

Language Phone New Process records—which insure the most perfect reproduction of the human voice yet developed—the student is enabled to hear in the clear, cultured voice of a native professor the right pronunciation of every word as he learns its meaning. This gives him a speaking as well as a reading knowledge of the language from the very first lesson, something that can be obtained by no other system of home instruction. Terms and descriptive literature will be sent on application. (See page insert of detachable post cards facing inside back cover.)

"If there is such a thing as a royal road to language study that road is certainly the Rosenthal Language Phone Method. I have examined dozens of textbooks, as well as all of the phonograph methods of linguistry study, but the Rosenthal is the peer of them all. I have always thought that I possessed a complete literary knowledge of French but I have learned more practical French after devoting three weeks to the Rosenthal method than I learned in four years of college and three years of French study. The enunciation is perfect, and one simply absorbs the verbs, usually the 'bete noire' of language study. For training eye, ear, tongue, memory, the Rosenthal Language Phone Method is unsurpassed, and I cordially recommend it to those who are studying languages by themselves or in class."—Paul R. Martin, Washington, D. C.

ROTHE, RICHARD

†Still Hours. Selections from the writings of Richard Rothe. Translated by Jane T. Stoddard. Introduction by John Macpherson, M.A. Crown 8vo, Cloth, 425 pp. $3.00.

ROWSON, SUSANNA HASWELL

Charlotte Temple. With an historical and biographical introduction by Francis W. Halsey. Reprinted from the rare first American edition (1794), over 1,200 errors in later editions being corrected and the preface restored. 12mo, Cloth, ornamental covers, 16 illustrations, 259 pp. $1.25.

SALEEBY, C. W., M.D., F.R.S., Edin.

†The Progress of Eugenics. In 1909 Dr. Saleeby, under the title of "Parenthood and Race Culture," told the story of the Eugenic movement up to that date. He now reviews its progress; deals many a blow at the open opponents of eugenics; and protests vigorously against those who seek to identify the science with theories which he regards brutal in spirit, immoral in principle, and impossible in practise. Crown 8vo, Cloth. $1.50.

"Discussion of the three primary divisions of the subject—Positive Eugenics, or the encouragement of worthy parenthood; Negative Eugenics, or the discouragement of unworthy parenthood; and Preventive Eugenics, or a study of racial poisons—constitutes a study of this subject which should be read by every parent and public-spirited person in the country, to say nothing of its relation to the whole religious and social problem."—Christian Standard, Cincinnati.

SANBORN, HON. F. B.

Dr. S. G. Howe: The Philanthropist. Vol. VI. of "American Reformers" Series. With Portrait. 12mo, Cloth, 370 pp. $1.75.

SANBORN, KATE

The Wit of Women. A collection of witty and humorous sayings of women, including anecdotes and mirthful extracts from books and poems. 12mo, Cloth, 215 pp. $1.50.

SAVAGE, W. G., M.D.

Food and the Public Health. Describes graphically the risks we run from uncleanly and infected food and urges the necessity for stricter governmental supervision of all the sources of supply, of whatever nature. Crown 8vo, Cloth. Illustrated. $1.50.

SCHAFF, PHILIP, D.D., and ARTHUR GILMAN, M.A.

Library of Religious Poetry. A collection of the best poetry of all ages and lands, comprising 1,888 poems, and representing 716 authors. The work includes poems on nature; poems based on historical characters and events; poems of country, patriotism, home; poems relating to Scriptural places, scenes, characters, the seasons; poems on life, God and the Trinity; praise, prayer, the Bible, Crucifixion, the Resurrection, death, judgment, hell, heaven, etc. Fifteen portraits. Royal 8vo, Cloth, 1,038 pp. Indexes of authors, subjects, and first lines. $7.50.

"The editing has been done with skill, large knowledge, faithful diligence, and fine judgment, as was to be expected in a work of this sort from editors of such high character and accomplished scholarship."—The Evening Post, New York.

SCHAFF-HERZOG ENCYCLOPEDIA OF RELIGIOUS KNOWLEDGE, THE NEW

Embracing Biblical, Historical, Doctrinal, and Practical Theology, and Biblical, Theological, and Ecclesiastical Biography from the Earliest times to the Present day. Based on the celebrated German Hauck-Herzog Realencyklopädie für Protestantische Theologie und Kirche. Prepared by more than six hundred scholars and specialists under the supervision of Samuel Macauley Jackson, D.D., LL.D., Editor-in-Chief, Associate Editor with Dr. Philip Schaff, of the First Edition, Professor of Church History in New York University, with the assistance of Charles Colebrook Sherman, Managing Editor, and George William Gilmore, M.A., Bibliographical Editor, and the following Department Editors: James Frederick McCurdy, Ph.D., LL.D., University College, Toronto; Clarence Augustine Beckwith, D.D., Chicago Theological Seminary; Henry King Carroll, LL.D., Corresponding Secretary Methodist Missionary Society; Henry Sylvester Nash, D.D., Cambridge Theological School; Albert Henry Newman, D.D., LL.D., Baylor University, Texas; John Thomas Creagh, D.D., Catholic University of America, Washington; James Francis Driscoll, D.D., St. Joseph's Seminary. Complete in twelve 8vo volumes, aggregating about six thousand pages and an Extended Index, forming a Supplementary 8vo Volume of 211 pages, compiled with great care, by Prof. George William Gilmore, Associate Editor of the work, to make available, with the least possible expenditure of time to the reader, all its rich treasures of knowledge. In this Index, vocabulary titles are printed in Small Capitals; and all entries are intended to register passages where actual information is given upon the topic suggested. It is notably a working Index, which the student will appreciate for its frequent convenience and its great practical value. Price of the 13 volumes in Cloth, $64; in Half Morocco, $102; in Full Morocco, $128.

"It contains the best and latest information, put together in a catholic spirit, free from rash theorizing and immature conclusions."—Prof. A. H. Sayce, D.D., LL.D., Oxford University.

"Its extent, variety, and accuracy of information are notable. Its digest of facts and its tabular statistics make it indispensable for reference."—M. Woolsey Stryker, D.D., LL.D., Pres. Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y.

"In its original form this work has been familiar to students for many years. In this edition the original articles have been reconstructed and brought up to date by distinguished American theologians, under the able editorship of Dr. Jackson. Two features are specially worthy of note: The insertion of hundreds of biographies of men of the present generation on the same pages as those of ancient and Scripture history, and the remarkable and extensive bibliography attached to the articles. The latter is probably the most useful feature of the present edition, and could hardly be excelled."—Rev. F. B. Meyer.

"Throughout the entire work there is manifested a spirit of fairness and broad-minded charity towards all. Where a subject admits of discussion, both sides, or all sides, are usually represented by their best available advocate, and this same spirit is evidenced in all articles of a sectarian character."—Herald, Rochester, N. Y.

"It offers a great variety of information, clearly and compactly given, and more interesting to general readers than those who never meddle with reference books can easily understand."—Times, Hartford, Conn.

"It is universal in its scope, embracing all religions, all sects, all creeds, and all variations of religious thought and philosophy, and it covers every phase of ecclesiastical and theological discussions."—Record, Los Angeles, Cal.

SCHARLIEB, DR. MARY

†The Welfare of the Expectant Mother. Shows how the health of a nation depends largely on the welfare of the mother during the months before the birth of her child, and details what can be done to strengthen and sustain her during this trying period, thus safeguarding the life and health of the next generation. Crown 8vo, Cloth. $1.50.

SCHENCK, FERDINAND S., D.D.

Modern Practical Theology. A manual of homiletics, liturgics, poimenics, archagics, pedagogy, sociology, and the English Bible, for the use of preachers, instructors, and students. In each main division of the subject, reference-books and practical studies for students are indicated, the main object of the book being to put theories into practise. 12mo, Cloth, 330 pp. $1.00.

The Ten Commandments and the Lord's Prayer: A Sociological Study. These are striking applications of the everlasting truth contained in the Commandments and the Lord's Prayer. In an original treatment of the great maxims of civilization, the author has been successful in attaining the medium between overstraining a statute and abating its force. 12mo, Cloth. $1.00.

SCHODDE, PROF. GEORGE H. (See Commentary on the New Testament—Weiss.)

SCHOFIELD, ALFRED T., M.D., M.R.C.S.

†Nerves in Disorder. This work aims to dispel ignorance regarding all functional nervous diseases and to set forth scientific principles for successfully treating these troubles, not only by physicians, but also by the sufferers themselves. Present-day life tends to constantly work the brain harder and the body less. This tendency is resulting in an increase of nerve disorders, in a growing menace to bodily health and strength. Dr. Schofield shows how to find out the causes of this wear and tear of the nerves. He cites many cases of sufferers. He explains many cases of remarkable cures. In regulating the economy of health, in attaining the even balance between body and mind vigor, in avoiding, checking, or curing all forms of nervous troubles this work will be found invaluable. 12mo, Cloth, 218 pp. $1.50.

"Dr. Schofield tells in understandable language what functional nervous diseases really are, and the reading of this book will do much to relieve the needless sufferings of nervous people which are due to a lack of understanding of the disease."—Boston Transcript.

SCHOFIELD, ALFRED T., M.D.—Cont'd.

†The Home Life in Order. This book deals with subjects of pressing and every-day interest to us all. Dr. Schofield writes not alone of the household and its hygiene, but of the human body as to its organization, functions, and needs in the matter of care. The author is a prominent physician and lecturer of London. 12mo, Cloth, 345 pp. $2.00.

"Dr. Schofield is a good example of the highest type of modern physician, broad-minded, scientific, clear-headed, and equipped with an enormous fund of information bearing upon the subjects of which he writes."—Good Health, New York.

"Dr. Schofield has a very clear way of putting facts and theories that are generally credited with a sort of inherent obtuseness."—The Springfield Republican.

†The Force of Mind; or, The Mental Factor in Medicine. The action of the mind in the cause and cure of many disorders is considered from new and scientific standpoints in this work, with suggestions for the practical use of this knowledge by physicians and laymen. The author shows that the mental factor is the one out of many ever present in some form in all diseases and how this information can be used by physicians and patients. This volume is endorsed and used as a text-book by the founders and practitioners of the Emmanuel Movement. 12mo, Cloth, 325 pp. $2.00.

"The sanest attempt we have seen to deal with the mental factor in disease. It is a book that every physician ought to read. It will help him to understand why the personal factor counts so much toward the physician's success or failure."—The Medical Standard.

†The Springs of Character. A study of the scientific sources and qualities of character. All that concerns the training of the young and the perfecting of our own lives in every-day professional or business life is treated by the author. 8vo, Cloth, 259 pp., topical index and list of books on the subject. $2.00.

"All the subtle and occult as well as educational and outside agencies that tell upon the developing character are exhaustively considered."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

†The Unconscious Mind. Fourth Edition. Its object is to establish the fact of an unconscious mind in man, and to trace in brief some of its powers and the various ways in which they are exhibited. The work seeks to show that this mind is the seat of character and of conscience and spirit-life, and a most important factor in psychical and physical life. The subjects of habit, memory, muscular action, therapeutics, education, sensation, disease, character, sex, etc., are discussed in their relation to the unconscious mind. 8vo, Cloth, 453 pp. With diagram. $3.00.

"It is one of the best works that has been our privilege to examine on the application of the principles and results of the New Psychology. . . . The work has a therapeutic as well as psychological value. It is a work that every college professor and every public-school teacher, as well as every physician and minister, will enjoy."—Baptist Commonwealth, Philadelphia.

SCHUYLER, WILLIAM

Under Pontius Pilate. New Edition. 12mo, Cloth, 352 pp. $1.50.

"The book has the merit of making the events in the life of Christ seem like actual history and as being connected with the great Roman Empire in an intimate way. We can never fully understand Christianity until we give Palestine and its events in Christ's day an exact historical perspective."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

SCOTT, ROBERT. (See under Illustrations for Public Speakers, Cyclopedia of; see under Modern Sermons by World Scholars; see under Church, The People, and The Age, The.)

SCOTT, ROBERT, and GEO. W. GILMORE, Editors

The World's Devotional Classics. Selections forming a set of ten volumes born in the hearts of consecrated men, lived in their lives, and redolent of their saintliness. From the writings of sixty-five such men, covering a wide range. All periods between the old Jewish congregation and the modern Christian Church, all branches of the historic church—Western and Eastern, Latin, Greek, Coptic, Jacobite and Protestant —have been drawn upon. Under different conditions of time, culture, and environment, these writers are seen to be united in breathing and magnifying the life lived in the Spirit of God. For inspiration to private and public devotion these volumes will be found ever abounding and helpful. 16mo, Cloth; in a box. Sold only by subscription.

"Little jewels in any minister's library. They have a real and vital mission."—Rev. K. E. Irvin, Dubois, Pa.

"The selections must approve themselves to all who have religious insight and literary sensibility."—President Charles M. Stuart, Garrett Biblical Institute.

"The richness, beauty, and wealth of thought contained in these volumes make them lasting fountains of inspiration."—Rev. F. W. Tingley, Acton, Mass.

"I have often felt the need of books on devotions and in these ten volumes I find my need supplied." —Rev. W. C. Martin, Pastor M. E. Church, South Durham, N. C.

SCURFIELD, HAROLD, M.D., D.P.H.

Infant and Young Child Welfare. A comprehensive study of the whole question of child welfare along the latest modern lines. Shows how healthy babies may be born of healthy mothers and successfully reared in healthy homes. 12mo, Cloth. 166 pp., $1.50.

SEAMAN, HERVEY J.

The Expert Cleaner. A handbook of practical information for the housewife. Including hints, suggestions, and recipes for cleaning every article in and about the house, besides general household suggestions. 16mo, Flexible Cloth, 286 pp. $1.00.

SERGIEFF, MOST REV. JOHN ILIYTCH

†My Life in Christ. Extracts from the Diary of the Most Reverend John Iliytch Sergieff (Father John). Demy 8vo, Cloth. $3.50.

SERMON BIBLE, THE

A sermon library, containing 4,800 sermon outlines with more than 24,000 homiletical references and embracing the whole of the Sacred Scriptures. It gives the essence of the very best homiletic literature of the present generation, and it is a source of inexhaustible help to the preacher, student, or other Christian worker.

The supreme value of The Sermon Bible lies in its fertility of suggestiveness. Many a preacher or speaker grows weary at times of "seeking for suggestive hints." He wanders over acres of miscellaneous writing and can hunt up nothing pertinent. The process is an exhausting preliminary to the making of a discourse. It will be entirely obviated by judicious resort to the volumes of The Sermon Bible. Upon thousands of text-topics the desired aid will be instantly discovered, and the mind will be set going in the right direction, with an initial impetus toward original thought.

In 12 volumes. 12mo, Cloth. $2.00 per volume; $24.00 per set.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS

The plan of the work, in general, gives under each text, each being in its consecutive order from Genesis to Revelation: (1) Outline of important sermons by eminent preachers which exist only in manuscript or periodicals, and are thus inaccessible; or, (2) less full outlines of sermons which have appeared in volumes that are not well known or easily obtained; or, (3) reference to or very brief outlines of sermons which appear in popular volumes such as are likely to be in a preacher's library; and (4) full references to theological treatises, commentaries, etc., where any help is given to the elucidation of the text. Thus the preacher, having chosen his text, has only to refer to the Sermon Bible to find some of the best outlines and suggestions on it and very helpful references to all the aids available. Blank pages are bound in the end of each volume for manuscript notes.

ARRANGEMENT OF VOLUMES

The Old Testament.—In Four Volumes: Vol. I.—Containing Genesis to Samuel. Vol. II.—Containing Kings to Psalm 76th. Vol. III.—Containing Psalm 77th to Solomon. Vol. IV.—Containing Isaiah to Malachi.

SHEPPARD, NATHAN

Before an Audience. Or, The Use of the Will in Public Speaking. This is not a book on elocution, but treats, in a new and original way, public speaking. 12mo, Cloth, 152 pp. 75 cents.

"Gives suggestions that will enable one to reach and move and influence men."—The Pittsburgh Chronicle.

"It is level-headed and spirited. Full of pith and point."—New York Independent.

SHIRLEY, THE HON. RALPH

A Short Life of Abraham Lincoln. The arrangement of peace with the Central Powers has called up so many allusions to Lincoln's handling of the Southern States at the close of the Civil War that this concise and authoritative account of the part he played in preserving the Union and suppressing slavery meets a considerable popular demand. 12mo, Cloth, Illustrated. $1.25.

" . . . The bulk of Lincolniana is marred by a tendency to make a god of our great war president; and out of our intense admiration for the man, we have insisted that the bare facts, far from belittling him, tend rather to show more clearly than does panegyric what a moral giant he was. It appears that Ralph Shirley also holds some such view as is here expressed; for there is not a touch of the usual delirious praise in the compact yet comprehensive volume before us. Throughout this story of Lincoln's life is almost bald in its simple factuality; yet we have never read anything on Lincoln that left a more distinct impression of greatness than does Mr. Shirley's work. . . . The book ought to be valuable for supplementary reading in schools."—Journal, Minneapolis.

SHRINER, CHARLES A.

Wit, Wisdom, and Foibles of the Great. Together with Numerous Anecdotes Illustrative of the Character of People and Their Rulers. A fascinating collection of stories that introduce the great men and women of history in a most intimate way. The personal lives of these people, whose public acts form such an important part of history, have been hitherto largely sealed books. But their contents are now revealed in surprizing and interesting form in this authoritative work. Royal Octavo, 696 pp. $5.00.

"A book that is a whole library in itself of the most fascinating reading is 'Wit, Wisdom and Foibles of the Great.' For the person who finds pleasure in reading there can be no more fascinating book, and, of course, it is a gold mine for quotations and witty and humorous stories for public speakers and writers."—San Francisco Call.

"That's mighty nice. I much appreciate the volume."—Theodore Roosevelt.

"So much of the entertaining and the useful can rarely be found bound together as in this book."—New York World.

"A treasure-house of events, incidents, and anecdotes of distinguished people, which a busy man often wants but has not the time to search for. It is a monument of industry, and of judgment and discrimination in selection, which writers and speakers will find most useful."—Hon. Chauncey M. Depew.

"A veritable treasury of interesting pictures of the men we desire to know."—Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus.

"A most entertaining, informing, and useful book. It is filled with apt illustrations of a wide range of subjects of human interest and many most dramatic incidents."—Augustus Thomas, Famous Dramatist.

SMART, ISABELLE THOMPSON, M.D.

The Mysteries of Life. Four volumes that tell plainly and purely the story of sex that is so often difficult for parents to explain and that develop in children a wholesome contempt of impurity. These volumes will counteract the sordid ideas of sex which children many times receive from vague unwholesome whisperings from sources outside your home and will enable you to win their confidence and impart to them the mysteries of life in a clear, understandable way. Warmly recommended by Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of the Juvenile Court of Denver, Colo.; Edwark Bok, of the Ladies' Home Journal; Rev. C. H. Parkhurst, New York; Rev. Francis E. Clark, President United Society for Christian Endeavor; Charles W. Eliot, ex-President of Harvard, and many other prominent authorities.

BOOK I. What a Mother Should Tell Her Little Girl.

BOOK II. What a Mother Should Tell Her Daughter.

BOOK III. What a Father Should Tell His Little Boy.

BOOK IV. What a Father Should Tell His Son.

Small 12mo, Cloth. 75 cents each. $3.00 per set, boxed.

SMITH, F. BERKELEY

Parisians Out of Doors. It is said of the French that they live out of doors, and Mr. Smith in this book gives a true picture of this real life of the Parisian. 12mo, Cloth, water-color frontispiece by F. Hopkinson Smith, and numerous drawings and photographs by the author. $1.50.

In London Town. The hotels, the music halls and those who frequent them, the gay procession on the Strand, and in fact all the phases that go to make up every-day (and night) life in the great British maelstrom are flashed before the reader's eyes in a captivating fashion. Cloth, profusely illustrated with sketches and photos. $1.50.

"It is brilliantly written. The glimpses of London are not at all like anything we are accustomed to in descriptions of London."—Brooklyn Eagle.

SMITH, GOLDWIN, D.C.L., LL.D.

The Moral Crusader: William Lloyd Garrison. A biographical essay, founded on "The Story of Garrison's Life, Told by His Children." With Portrait. 12mo, Cloth, 200 pp. $1.00.

SMITH, ISABEL COTTON

The Blue Book of Cookery and Manual of House Management. (Introduction by Emily Post.) This is not "just another cook-book," but an original and authoritative guide for the preparation of foods and for house management. All the originality and importance of this volume would be of limited value unless it were written by so capable and practical an authority as Isabel Cotton Smith. It contains more than 2000 recipes; gives complete information on the management of house and home, with invaluable suggestions for table economy, and includes everything for every season and every day in the year, for every possible repast from breakfast to late supper and from teas and picnic meals to specially designed menus for children at home and at school, as well as menus for vegetarians. Crown 8vo, Washable Fabrikoid. $2.50.

SMOOT, THOMAS ARTHUR, D.D.

The Standard of Pitch in Religion. This work discusses the part in universal harmony taken by the individual—how it is to be done with benefit and without discord, and its results. Unusual and pleasing. 12mo, Cloth. $1.00.

SMYTH, CLIFFORD. (See Hawthorne, Nathaniel.)

SOCIAL REFORM, THE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF

An absolutely reliable work, including Church and Social Reform, Social Purity, Divorce, Tenement House Reform, Socialism, Railroads, The Church and the Workingman, Charities, The Institutional Church, Social Settlements, Systematic Charities, Crime, Prison Reform, Temperance, Domestic Science, Child Labor, The Public School Question, Municipal and Private Ownership, Labor Colonies, Concentration of Wealth, Woman Suffrage, Single Tax, Vital Statistics, etc., etc. Supplies facts and expert opinions on sociology and all topics directly or indirectly allied or involved; contains the latest opinions, statistics and other information on sociology, political economy, political science, wealth, industrial conditions and institutions, and on all the great problems of modern civilization. The most eminent authorities in the various schools of economy and special thought have set forth their pleas, enabling the reader to compare, weigh, and judge their respective claims. Edited by William D. P. Bliss. Large 8vo, 1,359 pp. Cloth, $7.50; Sheep, $9.50; Half Morocco, $12.00; Full Morocco, $14.00.

"It will stand in years to come as an epitome of social and economic conditions and the state of human progress in the last decade of the nineteenth century."—Col. Albert Shaw.

"The facts ought to be weapons ready for the hands of those who would fight for a cleaner, sweeter, happier earth."—Minot J. Savage, D.D.

"Seldom has a volume appeared that has so promptly impressed the reader with its obvious utility, and its compilers and publishers merit the thanks as well as the patronage of the public."—Chronicle, San Francisco.

"An exceptionally well-planned and well-executed work. The subjects are so distinctively the economic, social, and political subjects in which the public is now interested that this one volume will be used for reference by writers, speakers, and students three times as often as any larger work."—The Outlook, New York.

"To general workers and students of social reform who are not specialists, this book will be a boon. It brings within small compass a great mass of reliable information on the various social questions of the day." —Journal of Political Economy, Chicago.

"This is a great book in every sense of the word."—Education, Boston.

"It is not too much to say that, as sermons, they stand alone, combining with their pure evangelical doctrine a directness, a simplicity, a transparency, and an effectiveness of style unequaled by any other published sermons by men now in the pulpit or by those of other generations."—The Standard, Chicago.

"Spurgeon's sermons are full of the Gospel and they are full of wise and well-illustrated suggestions as to how one may most effectively preach the Gospel." —Bishop John H. Vincent, D.D., LL.D.

"There are no sermons better worth a preacher's study than Spurgeon's. Preachers ought to study the great models of preaching as artists do their masters, in order to learn their art. Certainly a preacher-peer among the great models was Spurgeon. No preacher can afford to be without his sermons."—Wayland Hoyt, D.D., LL.D.

STANDARD CROSS-WORD PUZZLE BOOK, THE

Contains 50 true cross-word puzzles. There are no ridiculous terms, and no misleading or "smart" definitions. Most of the words are in general use and all of them may be found in the Unabridged Standard Dictionary. A transparent work sheet accompanies each volume. This saves erasures in the book and leaves the puzzles themselves clear for later use and enables the purchaser to make puzzles over any pattern. Compiled from the New Standard Dictionary by Charles E. Funk. Square 8vo, Cloth. $1.00.

STANDARD DICTIONARY, THE FUNK & WAGNALLS NEW

A new Creation from A to Z. Four years of time and more than $1,500,000 of money were spent in its production. Over 380 Editors and Specialists were engaged upon it. It has about 3,000 pages; gives over 455,000 living vocabulary terms; contains more than 7,000 illustrations; has dozens of important features not found in any other dictionary; and is as far ahead of the old "Standard" as that was ahead of every other dictionary twenty years ago.

EXCLUSIVE POINTS OF SUPERIORITY

The Funk & Wagnalls New Standard is the ONLY Dictionary that

1. Covers its entire contents under One Alphabetical Order—a great saving of time.
2. Gives the common, present-day meaning of words first, the obsolete meaning last.
3. Carries two keys for pronunciation on every page of its vocabulary.
4. Uses as one of these the key recommended by the Department of Superintendence of the National Education Association for adoption by that Association.
5. Presents a consensus of correct pronunciation by the decisions of 25 Experts from the leading educational institutions of the English-speaking world.
6. Makes a point of definition by definitive statement.
7. Includes in its vocabulary the simpler spelling of English words recommended for adoption by the Simplified Spelling Board.
8. Follows a systematic method of compounding words.
9. Gives the key-words to the contents of all pages, for aid in consultation.
10. Contains rules governing grammatical and rhetorical construction.
11. Gives the rules for the simplification of spelling.
12. Employs the best and shortest system of respelling for pronunciation—the Revised Scientific Alphabet, 42 symbols for the 42 sounds of the English language.
13. Gives the rules governing the formation of the plurals of nouns, correct forms of address, etc.
14. Gives the name of the female of the principal animals under the name of the male, as, horse, mare.
15. Gives the antidote for each poison under the poison itself, and repeats them all under the antidote.
16. Makes a point of systematically correcting the common errors of speech.
17. Gives 32,000 quotations, in the author's own words and spellings, crediting author, volume, page, section or stanza; publisher and date of publication.
18. Gives 7,500 separate lists of synonyms, with discussion of more than 23,000 synonymous terms.
19. Gives antonyms—nearly 5,000 of them.
20. Gives the exact date of an event, if obtainable, in biographical, historical, geographical, and other entries.
21. Shows the latest change in form of government of territorial divisions in America and Europe.
22. Records a day-by-day history of the world, covering 31,000 facts in this record alone. In subscription editions only.
23. Presents the most authoritative and latest data on Geological Science as a result of consultation with experts of the U. S. Geological Survey.
24. Shows pictorial illustrations carefully directed by experts in specialties—such as Orville Wright in aviation, Frederick Sammis in wireless telegraphy, etc.
25. Has made a feature of illustrations representing appliances for protecting human life.
26. Locates Bible-names by book, chapter, and verse, so as to be easily found.

"There is no single book of reference so useful and so accurate as the Funk & Wagnalls Standard Dictionary."—Edward S. Holden, Librarian, United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y.

"I am really astonished at the amount of information compressed into so small a volume. You have given us a biographical dictionary, a geographical gazetteer, and an encyclopedia under the guise of an English dictionary. Your dictionary will for me supersede several dictionaries that I have been obliged to use together in order to gain the information now furnished in this one volume."—W. H. P. Faunce, D.D., LL.D., President, Brown University.

"It is the most complete and useful lexicon of the English language yet published."—Guy Potter Benton, D.D., LL.D., President, The University of Vermont.

STANDARD DICTIONARY, THE PRACTICAL

Also published as The College Standard Dictionary. Edited by Frank H. Vizetelly, Litt.D., LL.D. An unparalleled achievement in abridged dictionary making. Outranks the Funk & Wagnalls Desk Standard Dictionary as the largest abridged dictionary published. It is, in reality, only semi-unabridged, for it contains 140,000 vocabulary terms—about 40,000 more than its nearest competitor. One outstanding feature is the ample treatment given to faulty diction. The subjects specially edited for this volume, so as to provide the latest material, are Anatomy, Biology, Botany, Chemistry, Church Terms, Engineering, Entomology, Forestry, Geology, Medicine, Mineralogy, Pathology, Physics, Physiology, Psychoanalysis, Psychology, Radiotelegraphy, Radiotelephony, Therapeutics, War Terms.

WILDER, MARSHALL P.

Smiling 'Round the World. This book, inspired by Mr. Wilder's tour of the world, is a faithful account of what he saw and heard; of the opportunities he had of meeting great people and appearing before them. It is a book of world-wide enjoyment by any one who thoroughly appreciates the humorous, bright, and novel sights such a trip affords. 12mo, Cloth, with many illustrations taken by the author. $1.50.

The Sunny Side of the Street. A collection of experiences, anecdotes, observations, etc., relating to the humorous and, to some extent, the pathetic in life, by the well-known "Prince of Entertainers and Entertainer of Princes" — Marshall P. Wilder. It is prefaced with an alphabetical list of about 300 notables to whom reference is made in the text. Illustrated. 12mo, Cloth. $1.50.

The Wit and Humor of America. A collection comprising ten volumes of the most brilliant things in prose and verse produced by American wit and humor, selected, usually with cooperation of the author, from the best stories, sketches, fables and fairy tales of the greatest American fun-makers, with a merry Foreword by Mr. Wilder himself. More than two hundred writers represented, in over 2,000 pages. An inspiring Library of Laughter, furnishing many hundred "hits" for after-dinner application and other opportune use. Originally published for sale in a more costly form at $40.00. Since Mr. Wilder's death republished in the present style, 12mo, half-cloth, large type, each volume with full-page frontispiece portrait of a famous humorist, carriage paid, $12.50 for the set; half leather, $20.00 per set.

WILKINSON, PROF. WILLIAM CLEAVER, D.D.

Wilkinson's Course of Foreign Classics. WILSON, CLARENCE TRUE, D.D., and PICKETT, DEETS

The Case for Prohibition: Its Past, Present Accomplishments, and Future in America. Dr. Wilson is General Secretary and Mr. Pickett Research Secretary of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church. An authoritative study of the prohibition movement in the United States, based on the results of a most thorough investigation. Carefully written in a clean-cut, attention-holding style; keen in analysis, copious in the use of authentic historical and statistical material. 12mo, Cloth, 274 pp. $1.75.

"Deets Pickett is one of the best informed men and one of the sanest in utterance regarding the prohibition question within the range of my acquaintance. Dr. Clarence True Wilson is one of the greatest temperance orators of our generation. The volume they have written is worthy of the widest possible circulation."—Bishop Thomas Nicholson of the Methodist Episcopal Church; national president of the Anti-Saloon League of America.

"The publication of this book should be welcome—as giving the prohibitionist's side of the controversy, by all who are interested in learning what can be said on the subject."—Professor Irving Fisher, Department of Political Economy, Yale University.

"I have read the book with very great interest and consider it one of the most powerful arguments for prohibition I have seen. It is a decidedly fair statement of the case."—United States Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas.

WILSON, WOODROW.

President Wilson's War Message. This message to Congress calling for war with Germany, as the most important document ever presented by an American President, takes rank in our history with the Declaration of Independence. M. Rene Viviani declared it "the most perfect charter of human rights." Reproduced on Japanese Vellum paper, from clear-cut type with illuminated initials, for framing and preserving. In tube, mailed. 50 cents.

WINSLOW, FORBES, D.C.L.

XANTHES

(See "Mental Efficiency Series.")

YEZIERSKA, ANZIA

Children of Loneliness. A collection of vivid, gripping short stories which describe as no other author has done the loneliness, the aspirations, and the struggles of the immigrant. Herself an immigrant, Anzia Yezierska is one of the few to make the fight from the tenements to success and retain the imagination and the will to write of the innermost aspirations and the deepest sufferings of these newcomers to our shores. There is a vigor and intenseness about these stories that can scarcely fail to make a profound impression upon the reader. 12mo, Cloth, $2.00.

"'Children of Loneliness' pictures vividly that tragedy which is the gulf between the immigrant parents, still clinging to the old ways, and their Americanized children. The book has color and a dramatic quality."—New York Times Book Review.

YORITOMO-TASHI

(See "Mental Efficiency Series.")

YOUNG, LILLIAN E.

Pussy Willow's Naughty Kittens. A fascinating story and picture book. The story is simply and delightfully told, with plenty of happy and amusing incidents, to insure enraptured attention. The 19 multicolor illustrations are not only beautiful but through a new and unique arrangement are especially appealing to children. Prominent in several of the full-page illustrations are doors so arranged that they may be opened, exposing the characters in the illustrations on the following page. In this way the child's interest is kept at fever heat for finding out what new surprize awaits behind these closed doors. 8¾ inches wide and 10¾ inches high. Beautifully illustrated. Aluminum cutting panel included. Cloth. $2.00.

YOUNG, ROBERT, LL.D.

†Young's Analytical Concordance to the Bible. (New and Revised Edition.) Unquestionably the greatest Bible Concordance ever issued. Exhibiting 311,000 references, marking 30,000 New Testament readings. It gives the original Hebrew or Greek of any word in the English Bible with the literal meaning of each, together with parallel passages. This is the only authorized edition in America.

THE 20th EDITION marks a great advance on all editions previous. Thoroughly revised with scrupulous care. Valuable and important SUPPLEMENTS in the shape of Index Lexicons to the Old and the New Testaments have been made, which will prove of great service to those unacquainted with Hebrew or Greek, including a Complete List of Scripture Names and a Sketch of Recent Explorations in Bible Lands.

In one volume, 4to, Cloth, 1,244 pp., $7.50; Half Morocco, $15.00. With Denison Thumb-Index, 75 cents extra.

Bible Paper Edition. Full limp Morocco, $24.00; Cloth, $17.00, both styles with Thumb Index.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS

ITS ANALYTICAL CHARACTER.—It gives at a glance the various shades of meaning of related words represented in the English by one word. ARRANGEMENT OF PROPER NAMES.—The proper names of all persons and places, unlike most concordances, are given in their alphabetical order with meanings. COMPLETE PRICE LIST

This list is arranged alphabetically by authors and, in addition, under subjects or series. For greater convenience a few books are listed also by title.

The code words, in italics, which may be used in ordering by telegraph, are from Bentley's Complete Phrase Code, Improved. The original meanings of the Bentley Code have been disregarded, and our own titles have been substituted. The Bentley Code, therefore, should not be used in messages containing orders for our books. Our cable address is Eginn, Boston, New York, or San Francisco. Prices subject to change without notice.

The conditions under which keys for teachers' use may be obtained will be furnished on application to any one of our offices.

FOREWORD

IN this catalogue you will find listed not only the best works of fiction, but a splendid assortment of clean, wholesome books for boys and girls, and delightful series of children's books of decided educational value, entertainingly written.

In building the home library nothing could be better than the Grosset & Dunlap books, for they enable the reader to purchase two books for the price of one. And moderate prices do not mean that these books have been compelled to suffer either as to workmanship, durability or attractiveness, for they will be found in every way desirable volumes to add to the library.

Wherever books are sold, Grosset & Dunlap publications may be obtained; but where bookshops are not available, any books will be sent on receipt of price by the publishers.

GROSSET & DUNLAP, Publishers
1140 Broadway (at 26th Street)
NEW YORK

THE aim of the publishers in compiling this INDEX OF GOOD FICTION has been to furnish the book-lover and the book-buyer with a list of nearly all of the fiction successes of recent years, now available at popular prices. Popular Copyrights are re-issues of books that have been on the market in the higher-priced editions for a period of about two years. They are not books upon which the copyright has expired. The same copyright protects both the original edition and the Popular Copyright. These books are printed from the same plates as the original editions. All are complete and unabridged and are reissued by a special arrangement between the author, the original publishers and Grosset & Dunlap to be sold at a popular price.

The Tom Slade Books

(Endorsed by the Boy Scouts of America)

By Percy Keese Fitzhugh

"Let your boy grow up with Tom Slade," is a suggestion which thousands of parents have followed during the past, with the result that the TOM SLADE BOOKS, by the same author as the ROY BLAKELEY STORIES, are the most popular boys' books published today. They take Tom Slade out of the unwholesome surroundings of Barrel Alley and carry him through a series of typical boy adventures through his tenderfoot days, through his manly experiences as a scout, through his gallant days as an American doughboy in France, back to his old patrol and the old camp ground at Black Lake, and so on.

Beautiful individual picture wrappers in colors. Handsomely illustrated.

Price 50 cents per volume, postage 10 cents additional

The Roy Blakeley Books

(Endorsed by the Boy Scouts of America)

By Percy Keese Fitzhugh

In the character and adventures of Roy Blakeley are typified the very essence of Boy life. He is a real boy, as real as Huck Finn and Tom Sawyer. He is the moving spirit of the troop of Scouts of which he is a member, and the average boy has to go only a little way in the first book before Roy is the best friend he ever had, and he is willing to part with his best treasure to get the next book in the series.

The books are all beautifully bound, with fascinating illustrations, and with irresistible wrappers showing Roy Blakeley and his famous grin.

The Blythe Girls

By Laura Lee Hope

Author of the "Bobbsey Twins"

For Girls from 12 to 16 Years

These stories relate the experiences of the three Blythe girls who were left alone in the big city of New York. Helen, who went in for art and music, kept the little flat uptown. Margy, just out of business school, worked as a private secretary, while Rose, plain-spoken and business-like, took what she called a "job" in a department store.

Individual colored wrapper and text illustrations by Thelma Gooch.

Every volume complete in itself.

Price 50 cents per volume, postage 10 cents additional

The Riddle Club

By Alice Dale Hardy

Here is as ingenious a series of books for little folks as has ever appeared since "Alice in Wonderland." The idea of the Riddle books is a little group of children—three girls and three boys decide to form a riddle club. Each book is full of the adventures and doings of these six youngsters, but as an added attraction each book is filled with a lot of the best riddles you ever heard. Wherever these children went whether in their club room in the Larue barn, whether swimming, boating and camping on Triangle Island, whether at their Winter sports, they crack these wonderful riddles, and every boy and girl will want to do the same.

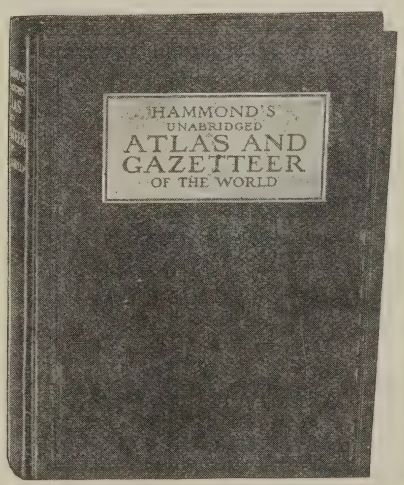
HAMMOND'S UNABRIDGED ATLAS AND GAZETTEER OF THE WORLD

Business and professional people, educators, librarians, students—all who desire to keep well informed—have long felt the need of a thoroughly complete, carefully printed atlas of convenient size. To them, HAMMOND'S UNABRIDGED ATLAS AND GAZETTEER OF THE WORLD will have an especial appeal, because this new book meets their requirements.

The atlas contains 288 pages of new maps, printed in four to six colors. The maps show the latest changes in international boundary lines, county and place names, railroad extensions. They are complete in detail including all mountains, rivers and other topography; all railroads, interurban electric lines, canals, and practically every hamlet, village, city and town.



LARGE SCALE MAPS

All this information is accurately and legibly indicated on the maps because of their large scales. Each state or foreign country has at least two pages devoted to it, some have many more. To cite a few instances, eleven pages are devoted to the British Isles, six to France, six to Italy, four to China, fourteen to South America, eighteen to Canada, eight to New York State, four to Georgia, four to Ohio, four to Colorado.

COMPLETELY INDEXED

The millions of facts that this atlas contains would be of little practical value if there were not some simple arrangement whereby they could be quickly found. Complete indexes have accordingly been compiled, so that any place may be easily located. Over 100,000 names are included, while the latest population figures of all cities and towns are given. By means of a General Index of Principal Cities and Towns of the World any foreign city may be quickly found even when the country in which it is located is not known.

The Descriptive Gazetteer of the World is illustrated by 114 beautiful photographs of scenes in all parts of the world. It describes briefly each country and colonial possession under such headings as Physical Features, Government, Commerce and Industry, Communications, and Principal Towns.

Size of Book, closed, 13½ x 10 inches, 450 pages
Durably bound in brown keratol, with gold cover stampings

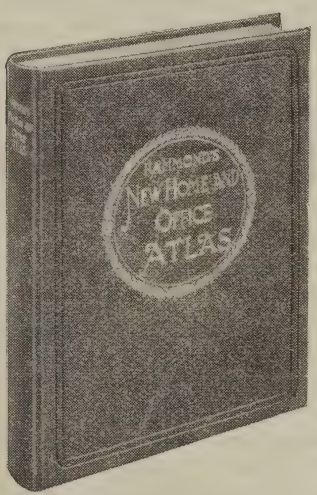
HAMMOND'S HOME and OFFICE ATLAS

This splendid new book contains a complete series of political, historical, physical, and economic maps. Among them are 99 pages devoted to the countries of the World, the Canadian provinces, and the states of the United States as they are today. The maps are most complete in detail including all railroads and practically all cities and towns. Many of the maps occupy two or more pages.



SPECIAL MAPS

History is graphically told on the historical maps in the Home and Office Atlas. This series enables one to trace the whole course of events from ancient times to the present day. By examining the maps depicting political boundaries at various periods of the world's history, it is possible to read a fascinating romance of the rise and fall of empires, of conquest, exploration, colonization, commerce. There are 32 pages of these historical maps.

Sixteen pages are devoted to physical and economic maps of the World, the Continents, and the United States, printed in colors to show economic, physical, climatic, vegetation, and population features.

THE ILLUSTRATED GAZETTEER

This thirty-two page section of the atlas describes the countries of the World and is profusely illustrated by halftone reproductions of some of the World's rarest and fairest views. The gazetteer starts with Afghanistan and proceeds alphabetically, telling, in concise but comprehensive paragraphs, of the physical characteristics, principal mining and agricultural products, communications, and government of each country.

THE INDEXES

These include a very complete index of foreign cities arranged alphabetically for the whole world, an index of cities of the United States having 100 or more inhabitants, and an index of Canadian cities. The latest population figures are used in all these compilations. There is also a two-page Gazetteer-Index of the countries, states, and colonies of the World, giving area, population, and capital.

A HANDSOME BOOK

Substantially bound in blue leatherette, a beautiful new binding material more durable than either cloth or leather. The title is stamped in gold on front and side. The top of the book is handsomely gilded.

SIZE OF BOOK, CLOSED, 9¼ x 12¼ inches. 250 PAGES.

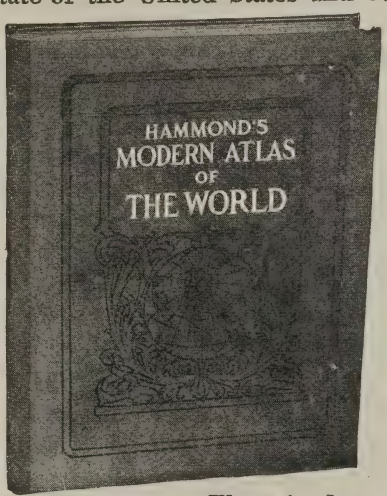
PRICE $6.00

HAMMOND'S MODERN ATLAS OF THE WORLD

THE RECOGNIZED STANDARD FOR TWENTY YEARS

The new and enlarged edition of this fine atlas contains 180 pages of colored maps and complete indexes. Every map plate has been thoroughly revised to date or entirely re-engraved, so that the atlas shows THE WORLD AS IT IS TODAY.

The book includes separate maps of every foreign country, every state of the United States and every province of Canada. They show all counties (or minor sub-divisions), railroads, cities and towns, and include the latest changes in names and boundaries.



In addition to the 100 pages of down to date political maps, the Modern Atlas contains 16 pages devoted to PHYSICAL and ECONOMIC MAPS of the World, the grand divisions, and the United States. This new feature is of unusual value, because it presents graphically much information that cannot be obtained elsewhere. These maps, printed in 6 to 14 colors, show at a glance physical features, annual range of temperature, industrial, agricultural, non-productive regions, and natural resources. There is also a Parcel Post Map of the United States, accompanied by guide giving rates and principal post offices with unit numbers.

A very COMPREHENSIVE INDEX OF CITIES AND TOWNS is included in this splendid atlas. This compilation, alphabetically arranged for the whole world, contains the latest population figures for each place, the index references and the plate where it will be found. The advantage of having one A. to Z. index is apparent, for a town may be found instantly, even though the country in which it is located is not known.

Other indexes give the latest population figures and index references for all incorporated cities, towns, and villages in the United States and Canada. Another helpful compilation is a GAZETTEER-INDEX of the World. This is an alphabetical list of grand divisions, countries, states, colonial possessions, etc. with area, population, capital, and index references of each.

Size of book when closed, 10 x 12½ inches, 180 Pages of Maps and Index.

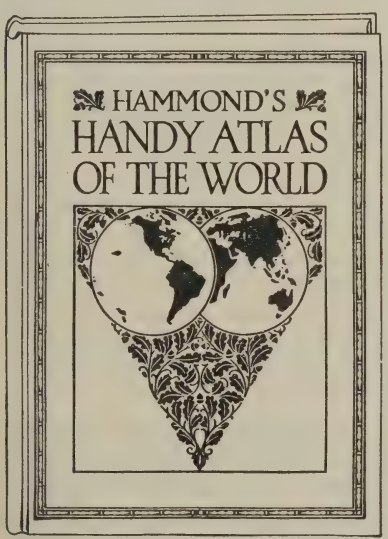
Price $3.00

HAMMOND'S HANDY ATLAS OF THE WORLD

THE IDEAL DESK ATLAS WITH COMPREHENSIVE INDEX

The most remarkable feature of this atlas, and the one in which it surpasses all others of its size and price, is its COMPLETE INDEX OF CITIES AND TOWNS, alphabetically arranged for the entire World. Here is a compilation so comprehensive that every city of importance may be found instantly, together with its latest population figure and index references for locating it on the proper map of the atlas.

OTHER VALUABLE COMPILATIONS, occupying 60 pages, include a Gazetteer-Index of the World, Index of Cities and Towns of the United States, Population Statistics of States, and Distances Between Larger Cities of the United States. The Gazetteer-Index gives the area, population, capital and index references of all grand divisions, countries, states, colonial possessions, etc.



The Handy Atlas, in addition, contains 100 pages of the FINEST MAPS OF THEIR SIZE that have been issued. They include individual plates for each state of the United States, each province of Canada, all new and old nations of Europe, and every other portion of the World.

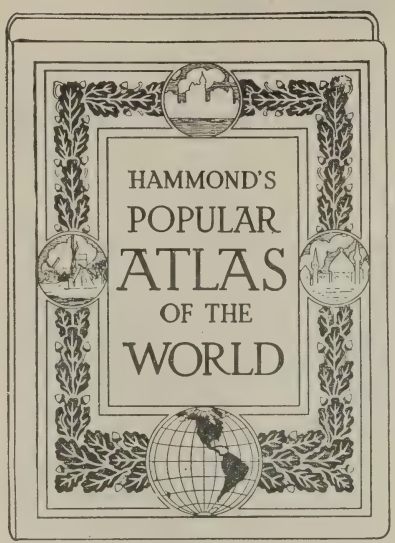
These maps, printed in three or four colors, show accurately the topographical features, the railroads, stations, cities and towns. The maps of states are arranged alphabetically and indicate the NAMES OF THE DIFFERENT RAILWAYS.

HAMMOND'S HANDY ATLAS OF THE WORLD contains 160 pages. The size is 6 x 8 inches when closed and the binding is of durable red silk vellum with attractive cover stamping.

PRICE $1.00

HAMMOND'S POPULAR ATLAS OF THE WORLD

336 PAGES OF GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION



This fine collection of over 100 maps includes maps of each state, territory and insular possession of the United States, of each province of Canada, of each country of Europe including Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Finland, Poland and other new nations, and general maps of all other portions of the globe. These are beautifully printed in color, are down to date and are complete in detail.

In these days of rapid development of little known lands, of tremendous progress in foreign trade, and of wide interest in geographical questions it is important to know something of the commerce, communications and industries of the different countries and states, in addition to their geographic location.

This atlas has been published to fill this need, for it contains a DESCRIPTIVE GAZETTEER OF THE WORLD. This is an entirely new compilation describing the physical features, natural resources, government, commerce, industries, communications, etc. of each country. The information is down to date including such recent developments as the recent partitioning and new government of Ireland, the Soviet government of Russia and descriptions of all the new countries of Europe, Asia and Africa.

The Popular Atlas also contains a GAZETTEER OF THE UNITED STATES AND NON-CONTIGUOUS TERRITORIES, covering exhaustively the physical features, forests, agriculture, minerals, manufactures, government and history of each state. Small maps accompany the text showing the natural resources, the chief mineral deposits, the navigable rivers, canals, highest land, and chief cities and towns of each state. These maps form a wonderfully useful supplement to the more detailed commercial maps in the body of the atlas.

The new INDEX OF CITIES AND TOWNS lists in alphabetical order practically every place mentioned on the maps and gives the new population figures of each place according to the official enumerations. This index locates the places on the maps, giving page numbers and index references.

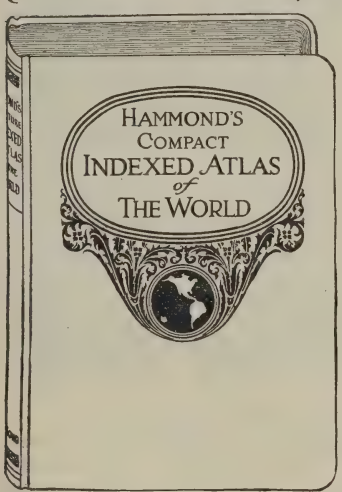
HAMMOND'S COMPACT INDEXED ATLAS OF THE WORLD

CONVENIENT IN SIZE, COMPLETE IN SCOPE

This handy little reference book is a marvel of condensation, containing a vast amount of information about the World, arranged so skilfully that facts may be instantly ascertained. Its clear, accurate maps and comprehensive indexes are IDEAL FOR QUICK REFERENCE, and many owners of large atlases prefer to use this Compact Atlas, because it answers most of the questions which arise when an atlas needs to be consulted.



The Atlas is 4⅛ x 6⅛ inches in size and contains 320 pages. Nearly all the map plates OCCUPY DOUBLE PAGES and measure 5x7 inches. They are printed in colors and show railroads with their names, mountains, lakes, rivers, cities, towns, and villages. In the collection are included new maps of all countries of the World, all of our own states and all the Canadian Provinces. In addition, there is a series of special large scale maps of the environs of all the larger cities of the United States, showing greater detail in the densely populated areas.

A very valuable feature of the atlas is the EXCELLENCE OF THE INDEXES. One of them occupies 63 pages and includes the names, alphabetically arranged, of all cities and towns appearing on the maps. It gives the country, plate number, and exact point where each place is to be found, and the population figures, according to the latest census reports.

The state maps are arranged alphabetically and are accompanied on adjacent pages by indexes of all cities and towns of 1,000 or more inhabitants, with population figures and index references.

In all three styles of binding the COMPACT INDEXED ATLAS is attractive in appearance and permanent in construction.

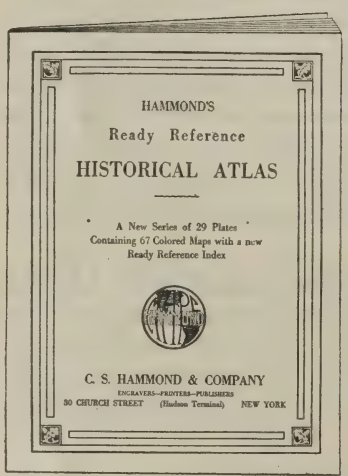
A New Publication for the Student



Hammond's READY REFERENCE HISTORICAL ATLAS

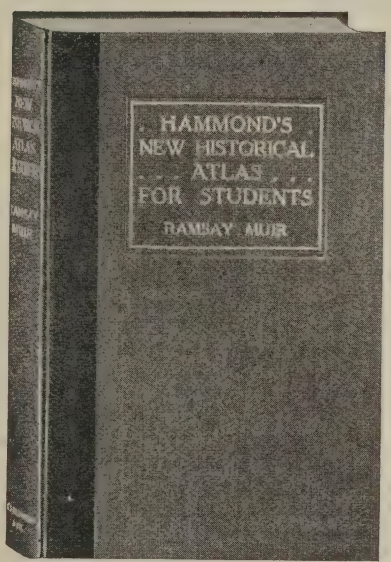
THE Ready Reference Historical Atlas contains a new collection of reliable historical maps, affording the student of history an invaluable reference work at a low price.

The contents of this book include over 70 maps illustrating different parts of the world from the time of the Chaldeans in 3800 B. C. down to the present day. There are maps of the ancient empires of Babylonia, Persia and Syria and the Roman Empire, maps of the Holy Lands, ancient Greece and Italy with plans of the ancient cities and maps illustrating the changes in Europe down to the close of the Great War. There are also detailed maps of the Western Front showing the several battle lines. The various periods in the history of England, France, Poland and Italy are portrayed by groups of maps. The history of the United States is illustrated by a series of maps showing each period, from the days of the earliest explorers and grants down to the present time.

The maps are accompanied by a valuable index which enables one to locate instantly any tribe, region or country shown in this collection.

Size 10¼ x 13½ inches, 32 pages, board binding. Price 75 cents.

HAMMOND'S NEW HISTORICAL ATLAS FOR STUDENTS



The student of modern history has long felt the need of a carefully produced historical atlas, covering the whole ground and issued at a price within the reach of all. This new atlas, therefore, endeavors to fill this gap. No pains have been spared to achieve this end; every map has been specially drawn and engraved and the entire work has been prepared under the supervision of Ramsay Muir, M. A., Professor of Modern History in the University of Liverpool, England.

This new Historical Atlas numbers in its contents 65 double-page plates, 7¾ x 9½ inches, containing 154 colored maps and diagrams, an introduction of 62 pages, illustrated by 43 maps and plans in black and white and an index of over six thousand names.

SOME OF THE FEATURES WHICH DISTINGUISH THE HAMMOND HISTORICAL ATLAS

¶ Great emphasis is placed upon the physical basis of historical geography. A series of physical maps has been included, carefully designed to show the geography of all the principal areas of historical importance. These maps are placed in proximity to groups of other maps of the same area so that the influence of the build of a country upon its history will be more easily made manifest to the student.

¶ Great care has been taken to avoid a confusing multiplicity of names on the maps; only those names which are likely to be useful to the student have been inserted, giving the maps a clear, legible appearance.

¶ The introduction contains a series of comments upon each of the maps in turn, which will be found of great assistance to the teacher. These bring out the influence of geography upon history and the reasons for rapid changes in political geography which has especially marked certain periods of the world's history.

¶ The engraving and printing leave nothing to be desired, the color work being particularly well executed.

¶ Bound in durable cloth of an attractive red shade, with side and back stamps in gold, the book presents a strikingly handsome appearance.

Size of the book, closed, 5¾ inches wide, 8¾ inches long, and 1½ inches thick.

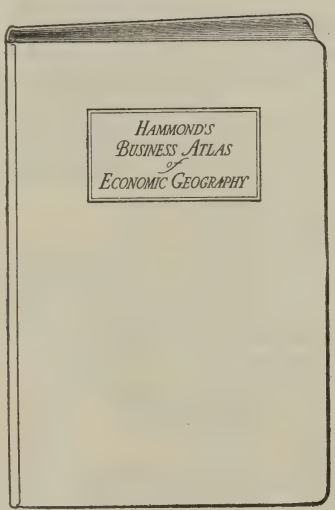
NEW MAP COLLECTIONS

AN ENTIRELY NEW PRODUCTION

HAMMOND'S

Business Atlas of Economic Geography



THE maps in this new work do not confine themselves to political features, but embrace many sides of physical, commercial and economic geography, and present in a concise and graphic way information not readily secured elsewhere. Nothing is of greater importance to the student of geography than the connection between such phenomena as climate, temperature, rainfall, vegetation, and relief of the land.

PHYSICAL MAPS show the elevation of the land and the depths of the ocean by different gradations of tint, while isothermal lines for January and July connect places having the same average temperature. The effects of elevation and proximity to water upon temperature are apparent.

CLIMATIC MAPS show the summer and winter rainfall, atmospheric pressure and the prevailing winds.

ECONOMIC MAPS locate the industrial districts, the productive and the non-productive areas. The agricultural and mineral products are indicated by initials and symbols.

VEGETATION MAPS show in different colors the prevailing types of natural vegetation-forests, grasslands, deserts, tundra, etc.

POPULATION MAPS show the density of population by colors and the more important towns by blue dots.

HAMMOND'S STUDENT'S ATLAS

This is a new and valuable collection of maps most needed by everybody to supplement text and reference books and general reading. Maps printed in five colors of the WORLD AS IT IS TO-DAY, the GRAND DIVISIONS and a large scale railway map of the UNITED STATES and CANADA occupy eight full pages. All the new nations are shown on the maps, while their national flags are included in the striking group printed on the handsome cover.

The same scrupulous care in engraving and printing that we devote to our more expensive works is in evidence on every knowledge-laden page of this popular priced book. It contains 16 pages, 13¼ x 9½ inches in size.

NEW BUSINESS BOOKS

HAMMOND'S LOOSE LEAF BOOK of SKELETON MAPS of the UNITED STATES

This new publication is designed for graphic presentation of statistics on a geographical basis. It consists of outline maps of the separate states, showing and naming the counties but omitting all other details. The county name in each case appears in small type near one of its boundary lines, thus leaving blank the major portion of the county to permit of the addition of special data.

The boundaries and names of counties are printed in blue upon a good grade of white bond paper, upon which notations can be made in ink, crayon, pencil or water color. The maps measure 8½ x 11 inches, the size of a business letterhead.

They are ideal for the display of temporary or permanent records of distribution. The number of customers, subscribers or policy-holders in each county may be noted; the territory alloted different salesmen, distributors or collectors may be readily outlined; the gross volume of business in the different counties can be easily compared when recorded on these maps. Health and mortality statistics, church and school attendance, when noted on them, will convey conditions more graphically than tabulations or charts.

These are only a few ways in which these skeleton maps may be used; sales managers, circulation managers, insurance superintendents and many other executives have found them exactly what they have long needed. To such, this unique publication is proving an inestimable boon.

NEW IMPORTED ATLASES

BARTHOLOMEW'S CITIZEN'S ATLAS OF THE WORLD—We are the American distributors of this new British atlas, the most striking features of which are the splendid execution of the map work throughout and the unusual completeness of its 212 page index.

The book measures 14½x10½x1½ inches, and contains 417 pages, 192 of them showing beautifully colored maps of every portion of the world as it is today. Nearly all the maps occupy double pages, 13x20 inches in size, and are mounted on guards so that each map lies perfectly flat when in use. Many countries occupy two or more double pages; for instance, the United States occupies six and France three.

The maps are remarkable for their accuracy and completeness of detail, as well as for the superb engraving and color printing. All political subdivisions are indicated by color; railroads, canals, and, on some maps, roads are shown; steamship routes with distances between ports are given and a vast number of cities and towns.

Every name which appears on the maps is included in the complete Index of 96,000 names following the maps. This index is arranged alphabetically for the whole world, and tells the country, page, and index references of each place; it is probably the most thorough compilation of this nature now extant.

The Citizen's Atlas is very durably bound in red cloth with gold cover stampings.

PRICE $18.00

BARTHOLOMEW'S ATLAS OF ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY—Contains 64 pages of colored maps showing land elevation, water depths, climatic conditions, vegetation, population and other economic features in all parts of the globe together with 64 pages of remarkable text describing in detail the many features illustrated on the maps. PHILIP'S COMMERCIAL MAPS

These new maps are the largest ones that have been published and show many details that cannot be included on those of smaller dimensions. For instance, mail steamship routes are distinguished from other steamship routes, while all distances between ports are given. Coaling stations, oiling stations, and wireless stations are located. Railroads are emphasized and, on some of the maps, are shown in different colors to indicate the gauges. The maps are correct as regards new international boundaries, new countries, railroad developments, etc.

COMPREHENSIVE MAP OF THE UNITED STATES

A COMMERCIAL MAP RIGHT IN SIZE FOR THE BUSY MAN—SIZE 38 x 25 INCHES

THIS map is just right in size and subject matter for the use of the man of affairs who wishes to have in portable form a comprehensive view of the commercial centers and principal transportation routes of the entire continental portion of the United States and the adjacent parts of Canada and Mexico. It is not overloaded with detail or marred by the excessive use of color but portrays in most legible form, the information about "high spots," railroad lines, etc. needed by every executive and sales manager. When mounted on compo-board with edges bound and rings attached as is shown in the above illustration, it becomes at once a wall map, a miniature "map tack system" and a handy desk map as well.

Cities and towns are shown in black, the size of type indicating the relative importance of places, so that the larger commercial places in any state or province may be readily selected.

Railroads are shown and named in a separate color, and even in the most congested regions these lines of communication are clearly portrayed. State boundaries are shown in a light border tint and the interior of each state is uncolored. This layout permits of advantageous use of colored marking by crayon or water colors for the separation of territorial limits or the employment of map tacks. In the assignment of sales territory and sales routing work, this map mounted on compo-board is unexcelled. In sheet form it is just right to fit under a glass-covered desk-top; folded in pocket form, it is indispensable to the traveler. The map may also be had mounted on cloth with wooden rollers top and bottom.

NEW AUTHENTIC SERIES POCKET MAPS

A reliable collection of POCKET MAPS of the Countries and principal Geographic Divisions of the earth is always in demand, and because of their up-to-dateness, general accuracy, and moderate price the Authentic Series of Pocket Maps of the World have enjoyed a popularity exceeded by no other line.

These maps, covering on a large scale every important portion of the civilized globe, are based on the most recent surveys and other reliable data, while the greatest care and precision have been exercised in their engraving and printing. Four distinguishing features mark their preparation:

1. MINUTE DETAIL. Probably no other maps contain this essential feature in such a degree of completeness. The political divisions of countries, states, principalities, provinces, and other subdivisions are shown; all railways are accurately and distinctly delineated; and the principal means of transportation and communication, including roads and submarine telegraph lines, are given.

2. ABSOLUTE CLEARNESS. By means of careful preparation and the use of distinct lettering throughout, all confusion and illegibility have been avoided, so that any desired information can be obtained without the slightest difficulty.

3. LARGE SCALE. The large scale of these maps materially increases their legibility and wealth of information, and especially appeals to tourists and travelers, as well as all others who require full and accurate delineation.

4. DISTINCT COLORING. The boundaries of all political divisions are indicated by light tints, which give the maps a strikingly beautiful appearance, without obliterating any of the place names.

The compactness of these maps in their light blue cases adds to their general attractiveness and utility.

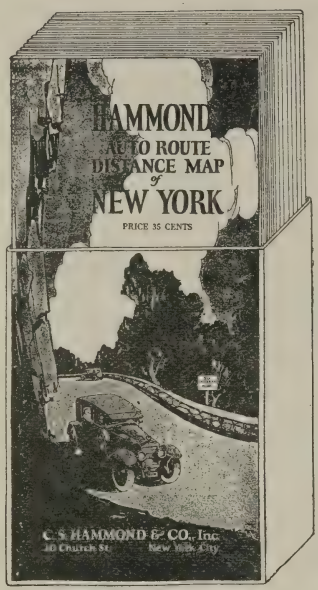
HAMMOND'S AUTO ROUTE DISTANCE MAPS



Display Case containing
12 Maps

These maps have been especially prepared for the motorist: only information that is essential and valuable to him has been included, thereby making these new road maps the most useful series he can secure.

The two route questions most frequently asked by motorists are "Which Way?" and "How Far?"—and these are the questions which these new maps answer fully. The through auto routes, that is, the long distance highways most frequented by tourists, and the shorter auto routes alone are shown, together with the towns along the roads. The distances between these towns are indicated in small figures, while the total distances between the larger cities and route junctions are designated in large red figures.

On maps of those states which have adopted a highway numbering system, the routes are numbered to correspond with the numbers on the poles or posts along the roads. Remarkable legibility has been obtained by the elimination of all non-essential detail. Lakes, rivers and the boundaries of the states are shown in blue, while the route information is in red and gray.

The maps are printed on durable map paper, and folded in attractive pocket covers.

GOVERNMENT MAPS

FOR WHICH WE HAVE BEEN APPOINTED SALES AGENTS

(CARTE INTERNATIONALE DU MONDE AU MILLIONIEME)

Since 1909, government departments in all of the principal countries have been cooperating in the preparation and publication of a series of uniform maps on a scale of 1:1,000,000 (or 16 miles to the inch). Each country has undertaken to prepare maps of certain regions; the total number of sheets required to cover the land surface of the globe is approximately 1,000, of which over 100 have been completed and are now available. Each sheet covers four degrees of latitude by six degrees of longitude and is generally printed on paper, 26x32 inches in size.

The maps are printed in four or more colors; all water, including seas, rivers, lakes and marshes, are shown and named in blue; three classifications of roads and the telegraph lines are indicated by red symbols; and railroads, international boundaries, cities and towns, are shown and named in black. On most of the maps, the elevations are shown by gradation of tints, while on others they are indicated by brown contour lines.

Practically all of Europe, Asia Minor, India, and Brazil have been mapped. The United States is thus far represented by three sheets: Boston, covering an area 40 to 44 degrees north latitude and 66 to 72 degrees west longitude; San FranciscoBay, 36-40N., 120-126W., and Point Concepcion, 32-36N., 120-126W. Argentina, Central America, Chile, Egypt, Japan and Siam have also issued sheets. Further information regarding the maps that have been published and the territory they cover will be furnished upon request.

Prices: Paper Sheets . . $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00

UNITED STATES GEOLOGICAL SURVEY MAPS

(TOPOGRAPHIC SHEETS)

The United States Geological Survey, which, since 1882, has been engaged in mapping the United States, has surveyed about 1,200,000 square miles, or two-fifths of the entire country. About 2,500 topographic maps of areas, known as quadrangles, have been published in sheet form.

The boundaries of these quadrangles are meridians of longitude and parallels of latitude. The standard size of the maps is 16x20 inches. They are published on three scales: 1:62,500, or about 1 mile to the inch; 1:125,000, or about 2 miles to the inch; and 1:250,000, or about 4 miles to the inch.

The maps show all bodies of water, such as lakes, marshes, streams, and springs in blue; contour lines, indicating the heights of all parts of the area, in brown; and generally all political boundaries, railroads, wagon roads, trails, cities, towns and the names of natural and other features in black.

Each quadrangle, or sheet, is named for some prominent feature within it—such as a lake, mountain, town or city—and the maps should be ordered by that name. Index maps showing the locations and names of quadrangles mapped in each state have been prepared, and will be furnished upon request.

We are the largest distributors of these sheets in America, excepting, of course, the Survey itself. ORDERS ARE FILLED THE SAME DAY RECEIVED.

UNITED STATES COAST AND GEODETIC SURVEY

This Survey publishes a series of navigation charts of the oceans, bays, harbors, and rivers along the coasts of the United States. These charts show in fathoms or feet the depths of the water at frequent intervals; lights, beacons, buoys, dangers, wrecks, etc., are also indicated by symbols. The names of towns, hills, high buildings, and other landmarks are given for the guidance of mariners, but interior land points are omitted. The maps are generally in black only, so that courses, sailing directions, etc., can be legibly marked thereon.

We give below a brief list of the general charts most frequently required. A complete catalogue describing all charts and other Coast and Geodetic Survey publications will be furnished upon request. The regular government prices are maintained by us.

SAILING CHARTS

These charts are intended for the use of the navigator to fix his position as he approaches land from the open sea or when sailing between distant coast ports. These retail at 75c and are as follows:

NO.	TITLE	SIZE	NO.	TITLE	SIZE
1000	Cape Sable to Cape Hatteras	34x41	8002	Dixon Entrance to Cape St. Elias	31x40

1110	Cape Hatteras to Charleston Light	32x44	1351	American Shoal to Dry Tortugas	25x38

COAST AND HARBOR CHARTS

These are intended for close coastwise navigation, for entering bays and harbors, and for navigation of harbors and smaller waterways. They are on larger scales than the general charts and contain more detail. Practically every bay and harbor is included. Prices vary from 25c to 75c.

UNITED STATES HYDROGRAPHIC OFFICE

The Hydrographic Office of the United States Navy issues charts of the coasts and harbors of foreign countries. These are generally printed in black on heavy paper, and show the depths of the water at frequent intervals, lights, beacons, buoys, landmarks, dangers, wrecks, etc. A catalogue of the Hydrographic Office charts and publications will be furnished at 50c, the government price.

MISCELLANEOUS MAPS

In the following compilation are included brief descriptions of many (but not all) of the maps in our vast stock—the largest assortment of geographical publications to be found in any establishment in the World. In order to include as many maps as possible, only the character, size, scale, and price of each one are given, but a more detailed description of any item will be promptly furnished by telephone or letter, upon request

EXPLANATION OF ABBREVIATIONS

The descriptions are grouped under nine general headings, namely: Series of Maps, The World, Africa, Asia, Europe, North America, United States, Oceania and South America, in the order named. Under these headings are compiled the descriptions, first, of maps of these divisions, and then, alphabetically arranged, those of the countries and states in them. Individual maps, issued as part of a series, of uniform size and nature, are described only under the heading "Series of Maps," but cross-reference by number to this series is given below the names of the individual countries or states. For example, we have 14 different maps of Kentucky; four are given special descriptions under that heading, followed by reference numbers to ten series, in each of which a map of Kentucky is published and sold separately.

CHARACTER OF MAP

For the sake of brevity and simplicity, the maps have been assigned descriptive terms, according to the features they emphasize or the manner in which they show them. Some of these descriptive terms are defined below. It should be explained, however, that these descriptions apply only to this compilation and are intended merely to differentiate between the various maps of the same area.

A General Map shows the political sub-divisions, the routes of railroads, simple topographical features, cities and towns.

An Orographical Map is one on which the different elevations are shown in different tints.

A Topographic Map is one on which the elevations are indicated by contour lines.

An Outline Map is printed in black only and generally shows no detail except country, state or minor division boundaries.

A Base Map is printed generally in black but contains some detail, more or less complete.

A Geological Map shows the geologic formations and strata by different colors.

An Economic Map locates the principal mining operations, designating the mineral produced and also indicates the chief agricultural products of the different regions.

Other terms will be self-explanatory.

SIZE OF MAP

The figures immediately following the character of the map represent its dimensions in inches, the first figure being the measurement from top to bottom and the second figure, the measurement from left to right.

SCALE OF MAP

PRICE OF MAP

The price in each case is preceded by a letter which indicates the style in which it is furnished at the rate given, viz:

C—Mounted on cloth.

D—Dissected on cloth and folded to pocket size. The paper map is first cut into sections of equal size, and then they are mounted on cloth with blank spaces between the different sections, so that the finished map folds readily and compactly. A very durable format.

F. M.—Mounted on cloth with plain wooden rollers top and bottom.

S—Printed on paper, and furnished in flat sheet.

At the prices quoted we will pay transportation charges to any point in the United States or Canada.

MAP MOUNTING

The demands for this class of work have been steadily increasing and have necessitated enlarging our facilities until we now have the largest and best equipped Map Mounting Department in the country. Here we delicately mount the torn fragments of some rare map or parchment for some collector and execute quantity orders for the trade and for large corporations. Our workmanship is invariably of a superior quality; satisfaction is guaranteed.

STYLES OF MOUNTING

PLAIN BACKING. The map is mounted upon muslin that has been dampened and stretched across an oak frame. When removed from frame and trimmed neatly, the reinforced map lies flat. Rates: three square feet or less, 75c; larger maps 25c per square foot.

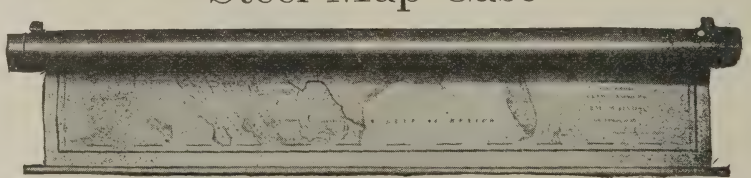
FULL MOUNTING. The map is backed on muslin as above, then wooden rollers are fastened by strong brads to the top and bottom of the map. Rings are attached to the top roller so that the map may be suspended. Rates: three square feet or less, $1.25; larger maps 40c per square foot.

STEEL CASE MOUNTING. The map is backed on muslin with wooden roller at the bottom and an extension of one to three feet of white paper mounted across the top. To this extension is attached a spring roller (similar to a window shade roller) which is then inserted in the steel map case described below. Rates may be readily calculated by adding the price of the case as given below to the cost of full mounting as stated above.

DISSECTING ON CLOTH. The map is first cut into sections of equal size, which are then mounted on cloth with blank spaces between the different sections, so that the finished map folds readily and compactly. Rates: three square feet or less, $1.20; larger maps 40c per square foot.

COMPO-BOARD MOUNTING. Maps are frequently mounted on compo-board, which is a preparation of wood and cardboard. It is then possible to insert map tacks for special designations as described on pages devoted to Map Routing System and Map Tacks. After mounting the map on the compo-board its edges are bound with tape and eyelets are punched for suspension purposes. Rates: three square feet or less, $1.50 larger maps 50c per square foot, except that maps longer than 10 feet or wider than 4 feet require a frame and hence the charge is 60c per square foot.

Steel Map Case



The Steel Map Case has more points in its favor than any other design for containing individual maps. It is made of heavy sheet steel, in a single piece, with edges turned over, japanned in dark green. When map is rolled up, the moulding on bottom fits snugly into slot, thereby making it dust-proof. Because of its construction, it is exceedingly strong, and so light that a child can easily carry the largest sizes, and, also takes up less room than any other unit. By removing cap at right end, adjustments may be made without the use of any tools. Being made of metal, it is not affected by moisture, or other climatic conditions. These unit cases may be hung one above the other, without interfering with the operation of any one.

THE NEW PHYSICAL GLOBE

FOR THE SCHOOL AND LIBRARY

THIS latest addition to our large line of globes is designed to fill a special need which has been felt for a long time. This globe which shows the height of land and depth of water as well as the political boundaries, is being extensively adopted for school and library use.

THE NEW 12-INCH PHYSICAL GLOBE

The teaching of geography embraces a wider field to-day than ever before, and this globe has been designed to meet some of the new requirements not shown on the ordinary globe. Physical features are especially prominent. The height of land from below sea level to 12,000 feet and over is shown by means of seven different tints of brown and green, and the depth of water down to 3,000 fathoms and over is shown by five distinct tints of blue. The coast-lines, river courses and lakes are well defined in a blue tint and the principal railways, cities and towns and all names are in black. Ocean distances aregiven, currents named and the direction of their flow is indicated by arrows. The political boundaries are distinctly over-printed in carmine and embrace all of the latest changes.

THE NEW PHYSICAL GLOBE IS MADE ONLY IN THE POPULAR 12 INCH SIZE

NEW GEOGRAPHICAL GLOBES

PLAIN STAND GLOBE

ALL of our globes are of the very highest grade. The maps are carefully engraved, beautifully lithographed in ten permanent colors and are down-to-date in every particular. The balls are finished with an extra fine grade of varnish and, hence, can be washed without injury. The mountings are attractive and substantial, and the entire product presents a striking appearance; we guarantee satisfaction. All twelve and eighteen inch globes are equipped with Metal Hour Discs, and each is accompanied by a manual, fully explaining the various features of the apparatus.

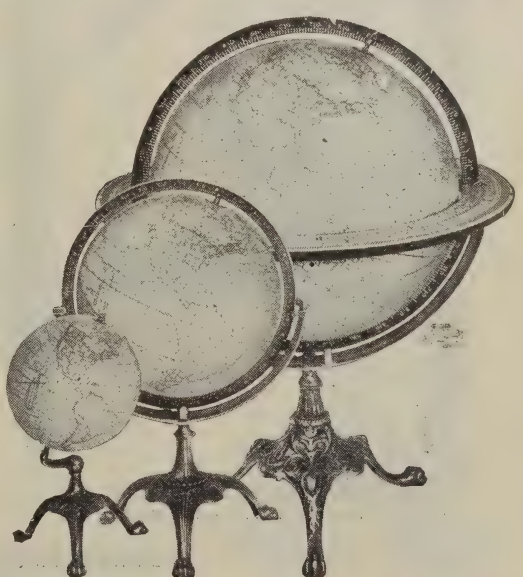
FULL MOUNTED GLOBE WITH MOVABLE MERIDIAN

COMPARISON OF SIZES

(8, 12 and 18-inch sizes)

Though not usually known, the superficial area of an 18-inch globe is almost twelve times that of an 8-inch globe and more than three times that of a 12-inch globe. On account of the clearness of the engraving which is correspondingly larger, we strongly recommend the 18-inch globe for general purposes.



THE MERCHANT SHIPPER'S GLOBE

FOR THE OFFICE AND LIBRARY

THIS globe embraces many new and novel features heretofore not embodied in a similar work. The map is entirely new and gives all the latest boundaries throughout the world, including the new boundaries in Europe, the Mandatories in Africa and the Pacific, etc. These boundaries are shown in a distinct tint, thus eliminating the heavy colors so objectionable on a high class globe. The ball, 18 inches in diameter and surrounded by a hand-cut brass meridian, is mounted in a beautiful polished solid mahogany stand. In the center of the stand, below the ball, is an accurate compass 8½ inches in diameter and covered by a glass plate. The horizon circle surrounding the globe is in colors and shows all the divisions with greatest precision. On the top of the ball is a brass hour circle which enables the user to tell the exact time of any place in the world. Ocean distances between ports are given in nautical miles and distances between principal cities are given in statute miles. Cities, towns, railroads and rivers are also shown. The finish on the ball is of such high quality as to permit its being washed with a damp cloth. The height from the floor to the top of the brass meridian is 45 inches and from the floor to the horizon circle is 34½ inches. Only the highest grade of workmanship is put into this beautiful and useful globe and it will make a worthy addition to the finest office or library.

LIBRARY TABLE GLOBE

A LOW STAND GLOBE OF HANDSOME APPEARANCE

To those who are satisfied only with the best in library and office furniture, yet lack the floor space for a high stand globe, this handsome new product will have an irresistible appeal. It may be placed on the desk or library table and, because of its low stand, may be examined by one while seated in a chair. It is probably the only globe of its size that may be satisfactorily examined in this way.

Every part used in its construction is of a superior quality. The imported map and horizon circle printed in ten beautiful colors, the wrought brass meridian, hour disc and other fittings, and the American walnut stand with soft, oil finish, altogether present a rich, pleasing appearance.

The globe ball is 12 inches in diameter; its map is down-to-date, showing all the latest changes in international boundaries, etc. In order that the surface may be washed, high grade varnish has been applied, which adds a permanent and attractive luster to the bright colors of the map.

The solid walnut stand, a superb example of the cabinetmaker's art, occupies a space only 17½ inches square; its height is 16 inches.

WIRE STAND GLOBES

These popular globes are frequently used in classroom work, each pupil having one on which to follow the demonstrations by the instructor on one of our larger globes. For children commencing the study of geography, these wire stand globes will be found as serviceable as a larger globe.

Since the eight inch size is very nearly as detailed as those on the heavier stands, it is often found satisfactory for office and home use. Many of the features included in our larger globes appear in smaller scale on both sizes of the wire stand globes.

Mounted on very substantial wire bases, these globes present a very good appearance. The maps show all the principal countries and cities, including the latest geographical changes. The surfaces are varnished. Each globe is packed in a separate carton.

—PRICES—

SIX INCH GLOBES $1.00
EIGHT INCH GLOBES $3.50

CELESTIAL GLOBES

SHOWING the configuration of the stars and the constellations. The stars are shown up to the ninth magnitude on these globes. This is an important thing to be taken into consideration when ordering celestial globes. The mythological figures are printed in gold while the stars printed in white against a deep blue back-ground, present a very pleasing and striking appearance.

CELESTIAL GLOBES furnished in the same mountings as TERRESTRIAL GLOBES at 20% addition in price, and are supplied only in 12 inch and 18 inch sizes.

Mounted on terrestrial pole unless otherwise ordered.

HAMMOND'S
IMPROVED PLANISPHERE

Size, 16 x 16 inches

This apparatus shows for every hour of the year, the principal stars that are visible at that time. It is substantially made of heavy board and is attractively printed in colors, with the heavens in a pale blue. On the front is a circular opening, representing the horizon. A series of other openings form a semi-circle about the horizon opening, and along the sides of these smaller openings are printed at even intervals the hours of the day from 4 P.M. to 8 A.M.

Beneath these openings is a movable disc bearing a map of the sky and a circular calendar of the days and months of the year. By revolving this disc until the day of the month is adjacent to the hour on the front, a star map for that particular hour appears in the circular opening. If the northern point of the planisphere is then held in that direction, it is possible to identify easily all the more important stars and constellations, for the planisphere is in effect a mirror of the sky containing the names of constellations and the stars of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd magnitudes.

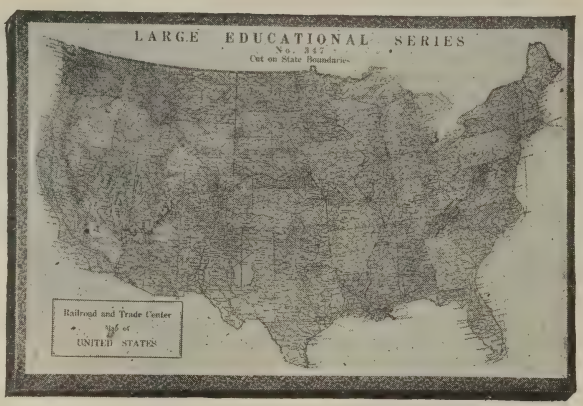
On the sky map, the constellations are printed in blue and are connected by broken blue lines. Stars of the first magnitude are shown and named in red; those of the second and third magnitude in black. The Ecliptic is shown by broken red lines.

On the back of the planisphere is printed a list of the stars with their right ascension and declination. This list forms in reality an index for locating the different stars, and is a valuable feature to be found on very few other planispheres.

The planisphere is enclosed in an attractive box 16 inches square, and ½ inch deep.

PRICE $3.00

HAMMOND'S MAP PUZZLES



These are jig-saw puzzles of maps that are dissected on county or state lines. Accurate maps printed in bright colors are carefully mounted on a special composition board. They are then sawed into many intricate pieces, most of them representing the size and shape of the sub-divisions.

Assembling these pieces into complete maps is both entertaining and instructive as it encourages the study of geography.

With the exceptions of Puzzles Nos. 247 and 256, each box has as a label the same map used for the puzzle within. Puzzles Nos. 247 and 256 are enclosed in a box bearing a beautiful cover design in four colors. The puzzle pieces are protected from loss by a seal of glassine paper entirely covering the open box.

HAMMOND'S PICTURE PUZZLES

This attractive line of puzzles is very popular with youngsters who delight in their charming pictures and handsome containers. The subjects have been carefully selected to appeal to children of different ages and there is a wide assortment of sizes and prices.

TWO PUZZLE PICTURES IN EACH BOX

There are pictures on both sides of the puzzle pieces, so that each box really contains two puzzles. Great care is exercised in their preparation. The pictures mounted on composition board, 3/16ths of an inch thick, are carefully sawed into many pieces, which are immediately packed in the boxes and sealed with glassine paper to prevent loss. The cover of each box bears a duplicate of one of the puzzle pictures.

In each of the nine series listed below, there are six different boxes containing two puzzle pictures.

THE POPULAR GEOGRAPHICAL GAME

AMERICAN CITY LOTTO

Here is a game that is more than a mere pastime for children; more than an idle means of amusement. American City Lotto possesses all the elements of a good game, arousing interest, excitement and friendly competition, but in addition it teaches the players many helpful facts of geography. The leading cities and their locations, the state capitals, state flowers and nicknames are examples of the knowledge acquired while playing. Furthermore, it entertains adults as well as children. It is easy to learn and so fascinating to play that youngsters and grown-ups become intensely interested in the game.

American City Lotto consists of twelve playing cards, each bearing the names of five cities in four states and 240 small cover tickets, each containing one of these city names and with one, two or three stars added in the cases of state capitals and largest cities. The players hold one or more cards before them and the cover tickets are placed face down on the tables. One at a time these are picked up and read aloud by one player, who gives the ticket to the player having that city on his card. It is then placed at the proper place on the playing card, and the round terminates when one player gets a complete state covered. Each player is credited with a point for each star he has exposed and the winner gets five extra points. Another round then commences; this continues until one player makes 49 points which ends the game.

The playing cards are heavy yellow board, 9 x 5½ inches, printed in green and brown; the cover tickets are red and blue 8-ply cardboard. Enclosed in box 10x6x1½ inches with title printed over map of the United States in four colors.

OTHER ATTRACTIVE GAMES

PERILS OF THE GALE

This enticing title appears on an exceptionally handsome box, 12x18x1 inches in size, which, when opened, discloses a beautiful playing board and eight small metal ships. The board represents an ocean divided into many square spaces. Four players strive to move their vessels to the harbors on the opposite side of the ocean, the movements being governed, not by dice or by finger spinner, but by an ingenious device known as "The Gale" which revolves when the players in turn blow upon it. "The Gale" whirls about above a compass and when it stops, the player may move one of his two vessels, one, two or three spaces in the direction indicated.

The game is very fascinating to play and appeals to young and old.

PRICE $1.50

FIRESIDE BASEBALL

Just as "Ping Pong" is an indoor variation of Lawn Tennis, so is "Fireside Baseball" a small size duplicate of the real game, for here is a game where the pitcher really pitches the ball, where the batsman really bats the ball and sends it out to left field for a three base hit. The Fireside Baseball Game is won by the most skillful player; luck is of secondary importance.

The game is enclosed in a box 30 x 15 inches, representing a regular baseball field. Around the sides are divisions marked, "Base Hit" "Out", etc., and at the Home Plate is a bat, 3 inches long, swinging on a tension spring. When the pitcher rolls the marble over the plate, the batter releases the bat and makes a hit or is put out according to the division in the outfield when the marble lands.

The game is substantially made of wood and cardboard with the field lithographed in four bright colors.

PRICE $1.50

UNIVERSAL PEACE

This timely game may be played by four persons. It consists of four playing cards showing the different steps that must be taken by the nations to gain the goal of Universal Peace. Flags of the different nations are moved up through these steps. In attractive box.

GEOGRAPHICAL CROSS WORD PUZZLE GAME

An interesting game for one or more children. Sixteen puzzles on eight cards are enclosed in a handsome box, together with a 16-page ATLAS OF THE WORLD and an answer book.

PRICE 50 CENTS

LEISURE-HOUR PICTURE PUZZLES FOR ADULTS

In addition to the large assortment of Picture Puzzles for young children described on another page, there is a series of more intricate ones for grown-ups and older children. The solving of a puzzle, when sufficiently difficult, fascinates all ages, and for this reason, the various puzzles in the Leisure Hour Series have as popular an appeal as the smaller and simpler ones. The pictures, generally landscapes or historical subjects, are mounted on best quality three-ply wood veneer, then sawed into numerous, odd-shaped pieces. These are enclosed in a plain box without sample picture.

The pictures vary in size from 10½ x 14 to 14 x 28 inches.

MAP TACKS

THERE is almost no limit to the possibilities for using these tacks on maps and diagrams to indicate special details. There is nothing more graphic or interesting than statistics represented by these indicators of attractive and well contrasted colors, which catch and hold the eye. They have been used in municipal budget and health exhibits to show, for instance, the proximity of houses and factories, the prevalence of certain diseases, and the comparison of present and proposed transit facilities. In business enterprises they may be used to indicate the routes of traveling salesmen, the territories allotted to agents, sections controlled by competitors, etc.

Lowest Prices and Efficient Service on Your Magazine Subscriptions

REALIZING the need of an Agency through which booksellers could route to the publishers the magazine subscriptions they received, Harper & Brothers twenty years ago organized The Franklin Square Subscription Agency.

The need for such an Agency has been proven by the steady growth of The Franklin Square Agency.

We are serving now a very large majority of the bookstores and department stores of the United States and Canada and handle for these bookstores and department stores almost $1,000,000 worth of subscriptions each year.

In addition to granting very liberal commissions to booksellers on their magazine subscriptions, we have developed an exceptionally rapid, accurate service in the forwarding of subscriptions to publishers. Our triplicate subscription order book makes the handling of subscriptions by the booksellers exceptionally easy and eliminates complaints.

The Franklin Square Agency also cooperates with booksellers in building up their magazine subscription business by supplying them with very attractive subscription catalogs and circulars for distribution to their customers. This promotion material as well as the subscription supplies are furnished without charge.

We gladly extend our services to all booksellers. If you wish further information, write to

MISTAKES

To avoid mistakes in ordering, customers should always

1. Give full and exact titles.

   When ordering from a series, state explicitly which numbers in the series are desired.

2. State definitely whether you wish editions with answers or without, with vocabulary or without.

   We cannot hold ourselves responsible for your neglect to specify when editions with answers or vocabularies are wanted.

3. State which binding is desired — paper, boards, or cloth.

   Books not otherwise described in this list are bound in cloth.

4. When books ordered are for introduction, this fact should be stated, with the name of the school or college into which they are to be introduced.

SHIPPING DIRECTIONS

Shipping directions should be given with great care, and it should be distinctly stated whether books are to be sent by mail, express, or freight. If by express or freight, state by what line.

REMITTANCES

Remittances should be made by post-office orders, express orders, or checks on New York, Boston, or Chicago.

NOTE

That goods sent as ordered are not returnable, except by previous agreement.

That all claims for deduction should be made on receipt of goods.

That books sent by mail, or sent to others for enclosure, are at purchaser's risk.

THE HISPANIC SOCIETY OF AMERICA

PUBLICATIONS

156TH STREET WEST OF BROADWAY
NEW YORK, NEW YORK
1926

The Publications of The Hispanic Society of America

The Hispanic Society, the organization of which was completed in 1904, has for its purpose, in addition to the establishment of a free public library, a museum, and an educational institution, the advancement of the study of the Spanish and Portuguese languages and of the literature and history of the countries wherein Spanish and Portuguese are spoken.

The publications of the Society consist of works relating to Hispanic history, literature, and art. More than one hundred and eighty titles are included in the list of publications.

Illustrated catalogues of the works of certain great artists,—Sorolla, Zuloaga, etc.

Reproductions of maps of historic importance, such as the Genoese world map of 1457; and of Spanish texts in facsimile.

Publications of literary criticism, as those of Ramón Menéndez Pidal and James Fitzmaurice-Kelly.

The Hispanic notes and monographs series, of which more than fifty volumes have been published.

The Revue hispanique, devoted to a study of the languages, the literature, and the history of the Castilian, Catalan, and Portuguese countries,—six issues annually.

The Bibliographie hispanique, an annual catalogue of books and articles of importance in the Hispanic field from 1905-1917.

ALL BOOKS ARE SENT PREPAID.

Subscriptions to the Revue hispanique are received at the Society Building; in Europe, at the bookstore of C. Klincksieck, 11, Rue de Lille, Paris, France.

The Revue hispanique announces or reviews books, pamphlets or periodicals of which a copy is sent to M. R. Foulché-Delbosc, 235 Boulevard Saint-Germain, Paris, France.

Photographs of paintings and objects in the collection of the Society are on sale at fifty cents each.

Post cards of paintings and objects in the collection of the Society, as well as views of Spain and Hispanic American countries are procurable at five cents each.

Lists of publications may be had upon application.

World wickedness and deluge. GENESIS 7.

5 ¶ And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.
6 And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.
7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.
8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.
9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.
10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.
12 And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.
13 And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.
14 ¶ Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.
15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.
16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.
17 And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.
18 But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.
19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.
20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.
21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee: and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.
22 Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

7 CHAPTER 7.

The general deluge.

AND the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.
2 Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.
3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.
4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth.
5 And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.
6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.
7 ¶ And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.
8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,
9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.
10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.
11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.
12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.
13 In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;
14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.
15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.
16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.
17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.
18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

Christ's sermon ST. MATTHEW, 5. in the mount.

24 And his fame went throughout all Sȳr'i-ȧ: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Gāl'i-lee, and from Dĕ-cāp'ō-lis, and from Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, and from Jū-dæ'ȧ, and from beyond Jŏr'dan.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Beginning of the sermon in the mount. 14 The light of the world. 21 What it is to kill. 38 Exhortation to suffer wrong. 44 Love our enemies. 48 Labour to be perfect.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Phăr'i-sees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there remembrest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

22 And Sē′rug lived thirty years, and begat Nā′hôr:
23 And Sē′rug lived after he begat Nā′hôr two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.
24 And Nā′hôr lived nine and twenty years, and begat Tē′rah:
25 And Nā′hôr lived after he begat Tē′rah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.
26 And Tē′rah lived seventy years, and begat Ā′brăm, Nā′hôr, and Hā′ran.
27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Tē′rah: Tē′rah begat Ā′brăm, Nā′hôr, and Hā′ran; and Hā′ran begat Lŏt.
28 And Hā′ran died before his father Tē′rah in the land of his nativity, in Ûr of the Chăl′dees.
29 And Ā′brăm and Nā′hôr took them wives: the name of Ā′brăm's wife was Sā′rāi; and the name of Nā′hôr's wife, Mĭl′cah, the daughter of Hā′ran, the father of Mĭl′cah, and the father of Ĭs′cah.
30 But Sā′rāi was barren; she had no child.
31 And Tē′rah took Ā′brăm his son, and Lŏt the son of Hā′ran his son's son, and Sā′rāi his daughter in law, his son Ā′brăm's wife; and they went forth with them from Ûr of the Chăl′dees, to go into the land of Cā′năan; and they came unto Hā′ran, and dwelt there.
32 And the days of Tē′rah were two hundred and five years: and Tē′rah died in Hā′ran.

CHAPTER 12.

1 God calleth Abram, and blesseth him with a promise of Christ: 4 he departs from Haran. 6 Canaan promised.

NOW the LORD had said unto Ā′brăm, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:
2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:
3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.
4 So Ā′brăm departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lŏt went with him: and Ā′brăm was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Hā′ran.
5 And Ā′brăm took Sā′rāi his wife, and Lŏt his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Hā′ran; and they went forth to go into the land of Cā′năan; and into the land of Cā′năan they came.
6 ¶ And Ā′brăm passed through the land unto the place of Sī′chem, unto the plain of Mō′reh. And the Cā′năan-ite was then in the land.
7 And the LORD appeared unto Ā′brăm, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.
8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Bĕth′-el, and pitched his tent, having Bĕth′-el on the west, and Hā′ī on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.
9 And Ā′brăm journeyed, going on still toward the south.
10 ¶ And there was a famine in the land: and Ā′brăm went down into Ē′gўpt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.
11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Ē′gўpt, that he said unto Sā′rāi his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:
12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Ē-gўp′tians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.
13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

9111. French Seal Leather, overlapping covers, round corners, gold edges, gold titles.....

THE FOLLOWING STYLES CONTAIN BEAUTIFUL COLORED PICTURES of Scenes in Bible Lands

These Special Editions Have Been Prepared to Appeal to the Child's Own Interest

All efforts of the imagination and all descriptions in Words cannot make the Land of the Bible as real and vivid as a walk through it by means of Pictures. There has been so little change in that part of the Orient that pictures of its scenes as they now are, show the very places as they actually existed in the time of Jesus and the Apostles.

The Colored Picture Styles illuminate in natural colors pictures of scenes and places taken from nature; and life in the Holy Land in manners, customs, dress and homes as they now exist, but so like olden times that one may imagine oneself going about with Jesus as He healed, taught and walked through the streets of Jerusalem. Each picture is accompanied by a complete description of the scene portrayed.

ALSO NEW PRACTICAL HELPS to Bible Study described above.

I KINGS, 20. Samaria besieged.

311 CHAPTER 20.

AND Běn-hā'dăd the king of Sȳr'i-a gathered all his host together: and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Sa-mā'ri-a, and warred against it.

2 And he sent messengers to A'hăb king of Is'ra-el into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Běn-hā'dăd,

3 Thy silver and thy gold is mine: thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.

4 And the king of Is'ra-el answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have.

even all the children of Is'ra-el, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon: but Běn-hā'dăd was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Běn-hā'dăd sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Sa-mā'ri-a.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive.

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them.

20 And they slew every one his man: and the Sȳr'i-ans fled; and Is'ra-el pur-

Christ is tempted. ST. MATTHEW, 4, 5. He beginneth to preach.

13 ¶ Then cometh Jē'şus [r] from Găl'i-lee to Jôr'dan unto Jŏhn, to be baptized of him.
14 But Jŏhn forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?
15 And Jē'şus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to [s] fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.
16 And [t] Jē'şus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw [u] the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:
17 And [v] lo a voice from heaven, saying, [w] This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

THE NEW HELPS CONSIST OF

The Inclusive Dictionary-Concordance in one alphabet

It contains every needed assistance to the Bible student, including a Dictionary, a Concordance, and a Subject Index of important topics

Over 100 Illustrations in the text, including full-page illustrations

The Dictionary included in this alphabetical arrangement is self-pronouncing. It is not merely an explanation of words. The meaning or derivation of the name is given in every instance. Passages of Scripture are quoted, and an interesting explanation is presented to the reader.

Where it is possible, the exact location of the geographical name has been given, and the modern name if the place is still in existence. The illustrations enable one to visualize the subject, as well as to find the meaning, and the reference to the Scriptures.

The Concordance part is so arranged that there is no difficulty in finding a word, all Concordance words being indented.

White space precedes the lines, thus enabling one to find the right word and the particular reference desired, instantly. Although necessarily condensed in order to make it available for publication with the Bible, it embraces all the salient points of the complete Concordance.

The Charts and Chronological Tables, not usually available in so extended a form in condensed Bible Helps, make the information there contained strikingly visible.

The Maps, printed on coated paper, are distinguished by strong boundary lines and contrasted coloring, not glaring in tone. They have been in use for some time and were verified and authenticated by some of the best known and most exacting Bible scholars.

A New, Practical Course in Bible Reading is also included in this edition of the Bible. This course has the great merit of tending to form in the reader the Bible-reading habit. It is divided into thirty-six lessons. The System of Markings is simple and the story of the books of the Old Testament, and also the life of Christ, add to the interest of either student or general reader.

Full-Page Specimen of Bible

NOTE the bold-faced type, pronouncing text, center column references with chapter numbers in heavy type—unusual in Bibles, but a great aid to quick reference.

Synopsis at head of chapters—quite full—some Bibles have none.

The figures to the left of Chapter Head indicate the total number of chapters from the beginning of the Bible.

The headlines also are in bold type in keeping with the text.

The name of the book, on outside corner, makes the Bible practically self-indexed.

1 Paul's thankfulness and prayer to God for them: 21 his readiness to glorify Christ.

A.D. 64.

CHAP. 1.

PAUL and Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs, the servants of Jē'şus Chrīst, to all the saints in Chrīst Jē'şus which are at Phĭ-lĭp'pī, with the [1] bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'şus Chrīst.

3 [a] I thank my God upon every [2] remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 [b] For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun [c] a good work in you [3] will perform it until the day of Jē'şus Chrīst:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because [4] I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in [d] my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, [e] ye all are [5] partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jē'şus Chrīst.

9 And this I pray, [f] that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all [6] judgment;

10 That [g] ye may [7] approve things that [8] are excellent; [h] that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Chrīst;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, [i] which are by Jē'şus Chrīst, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds [9] in Chrīst are manifest [j] in all [10] the palace, and [11] in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Chrīst even of envy and [k] strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Chrīst of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Chrīst is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation [l] through your prayer, and the supply of [m] the Spirit of Jē'şus Chrīst,

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that [n] in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Chrīst shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

Phăr'ĭ-seeş were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, [m] Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: [n] they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 [o] Then answered Pē'tĕr and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jē'şus said, [p] Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that [q] whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But [r] those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 [s] For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ [t] Then Jē'şus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tȳre and Sī'dŏn.

22 And, behold, a woman of Cā'năan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of Dā'vid; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Iş'ra-el.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to [x] dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jē'şus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 [y] And Jē'şus departed from thence, and came nigh [z] unto the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 [a] And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jē'şus' feet; and he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Iş'ra-el.

32 ¶ [b] Then Jē'şus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 [c] And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jē'şus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And [d] he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and [e] gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 [f] And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Măg'dą-lą.

S. LUKE, 19. Christ visiteth a publican.

Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jē'sus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jē'sus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

28 Then Pē'ter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Je-

CHAPTER 19. 992

AND Jē'sus entered and passed through Jĕr'i-chō.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zac-chæ'us, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jē'sus, who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jē'sus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zac-chæ'us, make haste, and come down, for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zac-chæ'us stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods, I give to the poor: and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

9 And Jē'sus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Ā'bra-ham.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

ST. LUKE, 5.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Mō'sēs commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Phăr'ī-sees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Găl'ī-lee, and Jū-dæ'a, and Jē-ru'sā-lēm: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jē'sus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Phăr'ī-sees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jē'sus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Lē'vī, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Lē'vī made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Phăr'ī-sees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jē'sus answering

FAMILY BIBLE

THE AUTHORIZED VERSION.

Printed from New Electrotype Plates cast from special new type.
Readers of the Word of God have hitherto always found it difficult to pronounce the many troublesome foreign names occurring in the text. This difficulty has now been overcome by means of a system which divides the words into syllables, and which also shows the accented syllables and indicates the proper sounds of the variable vowels and consonants.

THESE BIBLES CONTAIN THE SAYINGS OF CHRIST PRINTED IN RED.

BOOK OF JUDGES.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Conquests by Judah. 8 Jerusalem taken. 21 The acts of Benjamin. 29 Nations remaining unconquered.

B. C. 1425.

NOW after the death of Jŏsh'u-a it came to pass, that the children of Ĭs'ra-el [a]asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Cā'năan-ītes first, to fight against them?

2 And the LORD said, [b]Jū'dah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

3 And Jū'dah said unto Sĭm'e-on his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Cā'năan-ītes; and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. [c]So Sĭm'e-on went with him.

4 And Jū'dah went up; and [d]the LORD delivered the Cā'năan-ītes and the Pĕr'ĭz-zītes into their hand: and they slew of them in Bē'zek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Ă-dŏn'ī-bē'zek in Bē'zek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Cā'năan-ītes and the Pĕr'ĭz-zītes.

6 But Ă-dŏn'ī-bē'zek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Ă-dŏn'ī-bē'zek said, Threescore and ten kings, having [1]their thumbs and their great toes cut off, [2]gathered their meat under my table: [e]as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and there he died.

e Lev. 24. 19. Ps. 109. 16.

8 Now the children of Jū'dah had fought against Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

9 And afterward the children of Jū'dah went down to fight against the Cā'năan-ītes, that dwelt in the mountain, and in the south, and in the valley.

10 And Jū'dah went against the Cā'năan-ītes that dwelt in Hē'bron: (now the name of Hē'bron before was Kĭr'jath-ăr'bā:) and they slew Shē'shāi, and Ăh'ĭ-măn, and Tăl'mī.

11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Dē'bīr: and the name of Dē'bīr before was Kĭr'jath-sē'phēr.

12 And Cā'leb said, He that smiteth Kĭr'jath-sē'phēr, and taketh it, to him will I give Ăch'sah my daughter to wife.

13 And Ŏth'nĭ-ĕl the son of Kĕn'az, the younger brother of Cā'leb, took it: and he gave him Ăch'sah his daughter to wife.

14 And it came to pass, when she came unto him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted from off her ass; and Cā'leb said unto her, What wouldest thou?

15 Who answered him, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Cā'leb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.

16 And the children of the Kē'nīte, Mō'sĕs' father in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Jū'dah into the wilderness of Jū'dah, which lieth in the south of [o]Ā'răd; [p]and they went and dwelt among the people.

17 And Jū'dah went with Sĭm'e-on his brother, and they slew the Cā'năan-ītes that inhabited Zē'phath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called [q]Hôr'mah.

18 Also Jū'dah took [r]Gā'zà with the coast thereof, and Ăs'ke-lŏn with the coast thereof, and Ĕk'rŏn with the coast thereof.

19 And [s]the LORD was with Jū'dah; and [t]he drave out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had [t]chariots of iron.

20 [u]And they gave Hē'bron unto Cā'leb, as Mō'sĕs said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Ā'năk.

21 [v]And the children of Bĕn'ja-min did not drive out the Jĕb'u-sītes that inhabited Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm; but the Jĕb'u-sītes dwell with the children of Bĕn'ja-min in Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm unto this day.

22 ¶ And the house of Jō'sĕph, they also went up against Bĕth'-el: and the LORD was with them.

23 And the house of Jō'sĕph [w]sent to descry Bĕth'-el. (Now the name of the city before was [x]Lŭz.)

24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray

THE INCLUSIVE

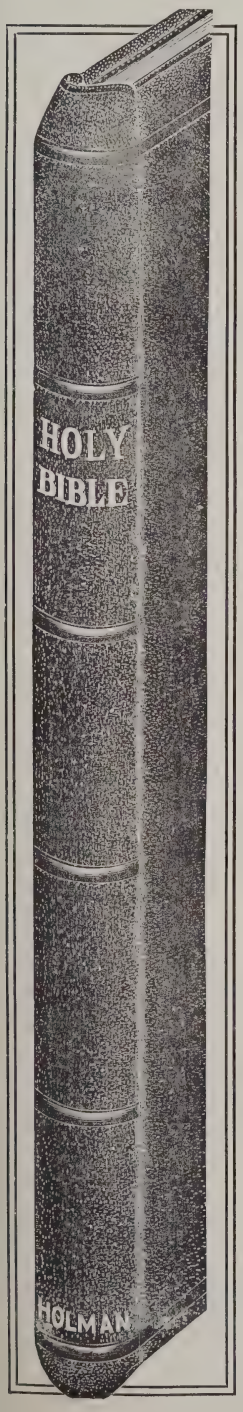
DICTIONARY–CONCORDANCE

Copyright, 1925, by A. J. Holman Company and incorporated in the new Boldblack Type Teachers' Bibles
See description, prices, etc., on preceding pages, 13–15.

Combining in a single alphabetical arrangement a pronouncing dictionary of the Bible; a Concordance to the Scriptures; a subject index to the Bible; tables of chronology and of weights and measures, etc., together with a complete series of maps showing the Bible countries from the earliest times to the date of the destruction of Jerusalem. Over 100 illustrations including full page illustrations.



EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Inclusive Dictionary-Concordance contains a selection and combination of the Holman Helps to the Study of the Bible, known to so many readers of the Holman Bibles, thoroughly revised so as to bring the material in line with the most recent knowledge. For the greater convenience of the reader and student, the information given in the various alphabetical lists of the Holman Helps has been rearranged in a single alphabetical order, so that any subject about which information is desired may be instantly found in its proper alphabetical place without the necessity of referring to an Index or of search in a Table of Contents.

But the Dictionary-Concordance, though in alphabetic form, is more than a word-book. The descriptions of Oriental persons, places, and things which render a Bible Dictionary rather of the type of an Encyclopædia are to be found here, each in the natural place according to the alphabet; and wherever it is of value to the reader cross-references are given to other places in the Dictionary-Concordance. For instance, the tables of Weights and Measures, of the Jewish Calendar, of Jewish and Roman Money, etc., are found as tables in their natural places. But each commonly used name of a weight, a month, or a coin is also found under its own name in the place in the alphabetical order in which it belongs.

EXPLANATIONS

The capital letter after each price indicates a classification of titles, though there is inevitably much overlapping in the appeal of the books to readers. The classification is as follows:

T = Fiction, Poetry, Travel and other books of general interest to adult readers.
J = Juvenile books.
C = College text-books, and books similar to them in character.
H = High School text-books.
F = Foreign Language texts and text-books.

Where the price is omitted, the book is in press but not published.
